GIANT VACUUM CLEANER

11 Die, 500 Hurt As Tornado Hits Michigan Area

MOUNT CLEMENS, Mich., (AP) — Eleven persons were killed and at least 500 injured late Friday when a tornado that roared like a giant vacuum cleaner swept across southeastern Michigan.

Gov. George W. Romney immediately left the Republican state convention at Grand Rapids on the other side of the state to go to the disaster area.

HEAVY DAMAGE

Macomb County Sheriff Lester A. Almstadt, who gave the death toll, said the twister smashed an area about two miles long and three-quarters of a mile wide. He added, "There is very heavy destruction."

Almstadt said the search for bodies had been discontinued until this morning.

The tornado appeared to have hit with the most force in Chesterfield Township, a residential area that lies between the southeastern Michigan cities of Mount Clemens and New Baltimore. All of the dead were believed to have lived in the township.

Almstadt said the devastated area had at least 75 homes completely destroyed.

But Macomb County Civil Defense Director Clem W. Skiba said, "For a rough guess there are at least 200 homes that were pretty thoroughly demolished." Skiba estimated at least 300 homes were damaged but not destroyed.

Romney left Grand Rapids by plane with three of his aides for Selfridge Air Force base near Mount Clemens to rendezvous with Gen. Carson Neifert of the Michigan National Guard and State Police Commissioner Joseph Childs.

The base is just off Lake St. Clair, north of here. A housing area on the edge of the base suffered heavy damage. The base is about 20 miles from populous Detroit which was not hit by the twister althought the metropolitan area was swept by rain and winds.

Detroit Mayor Jerome Cavanagh ordered all of his department heads on standby alert and ordered his Civil Defense administrator to go to the stricken area.

Only two of the dead were identified immediately. They were Barbara Forton, 29, and Susan Westfall, 7, both of Chesterfield Township. Mrs. Forton was identified by her husband, Wayne, 33, who said the twister demolished his home and injured his four children, Lori, 6, Stephen, 4, Lisa, 3, and Bradley, 2. None of the children was injured seriously.

MAKES POLITICAL HAY

Johnson Finishes Appalachia Tour

ATLANTA, Ga. (AP) — Half a million Georgians poured into the streets Friday to cheer President Johnson before he wound up a politically profitable trip through poverty-stricken Appalachian areas.

Johnson strongly appealed for racial justice and rejection of extremism and "the tattered and discredited banners of the past."

BIG RECEPTION

The massive reception in Georgia's capital for the President climaxed a whirlwind, behind — schedule, handshaking tour of six states in the Johnson war on poverty.

He spoke to hundreds of pensioners, picked up a beagle hound—but not by the ears—and shook countless hands in Atlanta.

Crowds lining the 8-mile motorcade route from a downtown hotel to the airport were estimated at 500,000 by Police Chief Herbert Jenkings.

From Atlanta, Johnson traveled by helicopte rto Gainesville in northeast Georgia for the final phase of his trip. He got a rousing welcome on a smaller scale there.

A 12-year-old hero, Charles Overby, welcomed the President to Gainesville. Overby won the Carnegie Medal for heroism for saving another youngster from being struck by a train.

"Mr. President, I want to welcome you on behalf of Hall county and northeast Georgia," the boy said.

The President replied: "I've never been welcomed better."

Then Johnson visited with several elderly white women on the porch of their home and a Negro couple at their store before again urging racial equality in a speech at Roosevelt square.

"Full participation in our society can no longer be denied to men because of their race, religion or region," he said.

Recalling a visit of President Franklin D. Roosevelt to the city in 1938, Johnson said: "If Franklin Roosevelt were standing on this square today, he would say that America must go forward with compassion and justice for all—or it cannot go forward at all."

Johnson said he wanted a government of compassion and he pledged to carry forward his war against poverty and discrimination.

This reiterated his speech in Atlanta where he drew applause from an audience that included state legislators.

Crisis Flares In Laos Cabinet

VIENTIANE, Laos (UPI) — The political crisis in Laos reached a new flash point Friday when neutralist Premier Souvanna Phouma defied Communist opposition and announced plans for a cabinet reshuffle.

In a communique issued after talks with King Savang Vathana, Souvanna said the cabinet changes would include the dismissal of two left-wing ministers who have refused to cooperate with the coalition government.

Reaction from the Communist Pathet Lao was expected to be strong and observers said it could mean the resumption of civil war in this strategic Southeast Asia kingdom.

He was a sergeant in the Paratroopers in Europe during World War Two, is married and the father of four children. The appointment was announced Friday. His wife is the former Betty Jo Speer.

U.S. Seeking Nations' Aid In Viet Nam

WASHINGTON (AP) — The United States is calling on 25 nations around the world to provide South Viet Nam with practical and material support for the Vietnamese fight against communism.

State Department officials making this known Friday said the request for help would not include combat units, but would include military as well as economic assistance.

Officials said the request for aid could perhaps be described as modest at the start, but rejected the idea that a merely symbolic presence of other nations is being sought.

The full list of nations, while not disclosed, goes beyond the membership of the eight-nation Southeast Asia Treaty Organization, and the 15-nation North Atlantic Treaty Organization.

Peking radio quoted the Communist Viet Nam News Agency as warning the Philippines, or any other country, that such aid would be a "serious menace to peace and security in Indochina and Southeast Asia."

Secretary of State Dean Rusk said last month it is important for more non-Communist nations to "show their flags" in Viet Nam. On April 23, President Johnson endorsed this view at a news conference, and said again this week that he expects further progress after Rusk attends the NATO ministerial council meeting at The Hague next week.

Communist China is seeking to make South Viet Nam an example of its so-called "national war of liberation." If the Reds succeed, U.S. strategists believe it will increase the violence and irresponsibility of the international Communist movement.

Sen Dirksen Unveils Last Bid On Rights

Proposal Raises Total Changes To 70 Amendments

WASHINGTON (AP) — Sen. Everett M. Dirksen unveiled Friday his proposal to drop from the civil rights bill power for the attorney general to initiate suits aimed at opening up places of public accommodation.

This key proposal was the last of 70 amendments to the House-passed measure which Dirksen, the Senate Republican leader from Illinois, presented during four days of closed meetings with other Senate leaders of both parties.

WHOLE DECK

Sen. Hubert H. Humphrey, D-Minn., floor manager of the bill who said earlier he wanted to see "the whole deck" before commenting on Dirksen's proposals, said after the GOP leader wound up, "This is a very hopeful development."

Humphrey, assistant Democratic leader, said, "There is now a good possibility to work out something."

However, the outlook may not come into focus until after the leaders meet again next Wednesday to see whether they can agree to accept the language being drafted for the 70 amendments.

The floor debate droned on for the 51st day, with some more jury-trial amendments offered, but the Dirksen meetings with the other leaders seemed to be the fulcrum for any real progress. The bill's backers hope the amendments can win enough support to make possible the two-thirds majority necessary for limiting debate.

Interest in floor action slackened to the point where the Senate decided to quit early and skip a Saturday meeting for the first time since the debate began March 9, except for Easter weekend.

Florida Buzzes With Rumors Of Raids On Cuba

WASHINGTON (AP) — Increasing signs appeared Friday that anti-Communist Cubans plan commando-type raids and other attacks on Castro Cuba at any time within the next 12 days.

Exile groups here and in Florida buzzed with excitement. There was talk that something could happen at any moment.

Various exile leaders have pledged they will be fighting Prime Minister Fidel Castro's Communist dictatorship on Cuban soil before May 20, that country's independence anniversary.

Asked about this forecast, State Department press officer Robert J. McCloskey restated the official U.S. opposition to hit-and-run raids.

In some U.S. cities, there were reports that numbers of young Cubans, particularly those with military backgrounds were strangely absent.

Area Showers Possible Today

The Twin Cities area may get scattered thundershowers this afternoon as generally cloudy weather will prevail over the area, the forecast indicates.

CLOUDY

Mild temperatures will continue today and Sunday with highs today of 82-86 degrees. The mercury will drop into the high 60's and low 70's tonight.

Friday's highest temperature was 86 degrees with the low 64 degrees.

The wind will blow mostly southeast at 8-16 miles per hour.

J. EDGAR HOOVER, for 40 years director of Federal Bureau of Investigation, poses beside a bronze bust presented to him Friday in Washington to mark occasion. The gift is from former agents of the FBI. (AP Wirephoto)

Tributes Fall On FBI Chief For Service

WASHINGTON (AP)—Tributes showered on J. Edgar Hoover Friday as he rounded out 40 years as director of the Federal Bureau of Investigation.

The 69-year-old FBI chief will reach the compulsory government retirement age of 70 next Jan. 1, but President Johnson is expected to issue an executive order waiving the requirement in his case.

Hoover's aides say he keeps himself in top physical condition and he shows no sign of being ready to step down.

The Senate took note of Hoover's four decades as top G-man by adopting unanimously a resolution praising his service to the country.

The resolution was presented by Sen. Carl Hayden, D-Ariz., dean of the Senate, who recalled that Hoover came to him after his appointment in 1924 and asked for help in getting funds to establish a fingerprint identification service.

Hayden said this was just one of Hoover's many contributions to law enforcement.

At his office, where aides said Hoover carried on "just another day of business," the FBI director was presented with a life-size bronze bust by the Society of Former Special Agents of the FBI.

Next came officers of the FBI National Academy Associates, who presented him with a ring, cuff links and tie clip. The officers represent the 4,500 law enforcement officers around the world who have graduated from the FBI's special training school since 1945.

Cambodia Hits Viet Nam Truck

SAIGON, South Viet Nam (AP)—Cambodia's troops shot up and seized a Vietnamese armored personnel carrier Friday on the frontier 40 miles northwest of Saigon. They killed one crewman and captured the rest, supposedly 18 men.

Gunfire from a Cambodian tank knocked out the carrier. Both vehicles were from the United States, supplied under the U.S. military aid program, but no American personnel were involved.

The Vietnamese were hunting Communist guerrillas.

Coupled with the attack was a Cambodian charge that Vietnamese troops, who have strict orders from Saigon to stay on their own side of the line in action against Red Viet Cong bands, staged an armored raid Thursday on the Cambodian village of Taey.

McKeithen Firm On Tax Ceilings

BATON ROUGE (AP) — Gov.-elect John McKeithen said again Friday his administration will oppose any new tax measures in the forthcoming legislature "and I hope we will be able to oppose them in the next four years."

But if his administration is unable to get enough money through a tidelands settlement or economy in government, he said, many feel "we may have to face our responsibilities and raise taxes as all other states are doing."

McKeithen, in a news conference announced his first state job abolition and the names of some of his Senate floor leaders.

He said also he and Lt. Gov. C. C. Aycock reached accord on Sen. E. W. (Kelly) Gravolet Jr., Pointe-a-la-Hache as Senate president pro tem.

FLOOR LEADERS

His Senate floor leaders, he said, will be Sens. Jamar Adcock, Monroe; Garland Bonin, Lafayette; Michael O'Keefe, New Orleans, and Howard Jones, St. Joseph.

The job abolished was that of Raymond Rizan, Baton Rouge, assistant superintendent of public buildings. He is a brother-in-law of Sen. B. B. Rayburn, Bogalusa.

McKeithen said he had asked Bennett if there were any jobs that were unneeded, and Bennett said he didn't need an assistant.

"I told him to abolish it and he did," McKeithen said.

McKeithen said he would name a new state parole board, a new board for the Sunshine Bridge Authority at Donaldsonville, and reduce to about one-half the positions with the State Board for Licensing contractors.

Rusk To Press For Stopping Cuban Trading

LONDON (AP) — American diplomats have advised Britain privately that Secretary of State Dean Rusk intends pressing the Atlantic allies again next week to end their trade with Fidel Castro's Cuba.

British officials, reporting this Friday, added they have been assured Rusk's move in the North Atlantic Treaty Organization Council of Foreign Ministers at The Hague next week is not being planned in any mood of polemics.

The word from the highest authorities here, from Prime Minister Sir Alec Douglas-Home down, was that the British government means to stand firm on its policy to keep on trading with Cuba.

IN WEST MONROE TODAY

5,000 to Witness Area Scout Show

Nearly 2,000 Boy Scouts from 15 parishes are expected on the Ouachita Valley Fairgrounds in West Monroe today to stage the 1964 edition of scouting's annual "big show," the Adventure-Rama.

Ouachita Valley Council Scout Executive Jack E. Pankey predicts to public turnout in excess of 5,000 persons to witness exhibits and demonstrations during the 2 to 8 p.m. hours of the exposition.

About 100 booth-type displays will be on view, offering graphic illustrations of virtually every phase of scouting activities. Each is being prepared unassisted by members of individual Cub Scout, Boy Scout and Explorer Scout units and will be staffed by unit members.

By Friday, 85 units from the Council's seven districts had slated participation, with several signed for multiple displays.

Adventure-Rama Chairman David Agnew Sr. termed unit interest in the 1964 show "extraordinary." In the Central District alone, comprised largely of Ouachita Parish, 32 out of a total of 38 units are registered to appear today.

Delegations are slated from each of the 15 Council parishes — Ouachita, Union, Lincoln, Winn, Jackson, Morehouse, Caldwell, Franklin, Catahoula, Concordia, Tensas, Madison, Richland, East Carroll and West Carroll.

Most Central District displays were installed Friday evening, with outlying districts due in early today.

Pankey will open the program at 2 p.m. with a brief welcoming address, joined by Monroe Mayor W. L. Howard and West Monroe alderman A. L. DeLoach Jr.

Special entertainment will include the miniature car racing finals of the Pinewood Derby at 6 p.m. and a 7:30 p.m. Indian dancing demonstration. Presentation of Derby trophies, exhibit awards and participation ribbons is set for 7:15 p.m.

JAUNTY AS JAYBIRD

HST Gives 'Em Fun On 80th Birthday

WASHINGTON (UPI)—Harry S. Truman became 80 years old Friday and he gave 'em unshirted fun all day long.

The ex-President — jaunty as a jaybird — spent his birthday cutting up fond touches with old Washington friends and newspapermen. He climaxed the day at a dinner given by his former political colleagues.

Truman began the day by quipping that being called an octogenarian "sounds like an insult to me."

Old political hatchets were buried as he went his rounds of Washington. The only visible sign of his years was a cane used in sporty style. A red carnation boutonierre decorated his lapel.

The only solemn moment came when he went to the Senate for a nostalgic visit and became the first ex-President ever to address the chamber during a formal session.

Truman was noticeably moved when he was given a standing ovation by every senator and spectator in the gallery. He was given permission to speak under a new rule adopted by the Senate last fall.

A bit chocked up, the Missourian told his former colleagues: "I am so overcome that I can not take advantage of this rule right now. It is one of the greatest things that has ever happened to me in my whole lifetime. It is unique. It is something that has never been done before. And between you and me and the gatepost, since I profit by it, I think it is a good rule."

Man Insured For $50,000 Implicated

CONCORD, Calif. (AP) —The FBI has determined that a passenger on the airliner that crashed near here Thursday shot at least one member of the plane's crew, informed sources said Friday night. Forty-four lives were lost as the plane exploded on a hillside.

The sources in Washington said the passenger had taken out an insurance policy in excess of $50,000 on himself before the flight from Reno, Nev. The plane went down 40 miles short of its San Francisco destination.

REVOLVER

The FBI declined to identify the passenger except to say he was a man and was the owner of a magnum revolver found in the plane's wreckage.

The Washington FBI study, the sources said, established that the revolver held six empty cartridges which recently had been fired.

The sources also confirmed earlier reports that a tape recording carried the pilot's voice, crying, "My God, I've been shot! I've been shot!" A scream followed the words.

The FBI in San Francisco had no comment on the case.

A mystery still unsolved was whether the gunman passenger shot only the pilot, or the copilot and possibly others aboard the ill-fated F27 Fairchild twin-engine plane.

All aboard were torn to bits by the force of the diving crash in the rolling hills southeast of Concord.

"There's really nothing left to bury," said L. H. Fraser, Contra Costa County coroner.

Deputy Coroner Mal Whalin said a human bone found at the scene contained a hole which could have been caused by a bullet. The officer said the bone was not a skull fragment.

The voice on the tape recording apparently was that of pilot Ernest A. Clark.

The Washington sources said that copilot Raymond E. Andress also may have been shot.

The airliner went down shortly before 7 a.m. Thursday carrying to death persons with widely divergent backgrounds—gamblers, a family en route to a reunion with relatives, an elderly minister on his way to a college class reunion, a Gospel singer.

The Fairchild turboprop plane was en route from Reno, Nev. to San Francisco. The airline and this type of plane both had remarkable safety records.

Before the deputy coroner's disclosure and the NBC report, FBI agents and deputies with hand magnets scoured the field where the crash took place, especially in the area where the pistol was found.

It was reported that part of the hammer of the Smith & Wesson revolver was missing. There was speculation that they were seeking this missing piece.

Reports at the scene Thursday said the pistol was loaded.

The FBI declined, however, to say if it had been fired.

A San Francisco police inspector, George Lacau, and his wife were among the plane passengers but police said the pistol was not his.

Its ownership remained a mystery.

The gun was flown to Washinton for tests.

Please tell me why all the heavy trucks and buses travel on South Grand Street instead of U.S. Hwy. 165, and what can be done about it.

According to the traffic division of the Monroe police department, Highway 165 now runs along Jackson Street, but in previous years was on South Grand Street. Force of habit, police said, may be the reason for many of the truck and bus drivers choosing that route. There is no restriction on trucks traveling on South Grand, officers explained, because of the construction work being done on I-20. Vehicles coming into Monroe from the south on Highway 165 must travel up Jackson to Layton, turn right on Layton, then turn back left on Hall and North Fifth Streets to hit Louisiville Avenue. The construction now in progress on I-20 sometimes makes it necessary to detour the route even further, whereas South Grand takes the vehicles directly into Louisville. Police said that trucks will probably be prohibited from using South Grand Street as a route through town upon completion of the I-20 construction.

There's no underpass nor overpass on the new Interstate 20 (I-20) Highway near Minden. I wonder why?

The railroad track you speak of is assumed to be a spur track leading into the Shell Oil Co. plant near Minden. This spur is blocked off and will only be used in a time of war or national emergency, Roy Mitchell, district highway engineer in charge of the Shreveport highway district, said.

A long discussion was held by the Federal Bureau of Roads as to whether it would be economically feasible to build an overpass or underpass for the spur track, but because the only occasions it will be necessary to use the railroad track are in time of national emergency or war it was decided the cost would not be justified, Mitchell said.

He added that if and when it would be necessary to use the railroad track, proper precautions will be made to warn the public using the highway such as warning signs and flagmen.

Turkish Engineer Ends Studies Here

A Turkish engineer and government official who has been the guest the past two weeks of engineers for the Louisiana State Department of Health here said that his country is 50 years behind ours.

Mehmet Kutay, Director of Village Water Supply for the Turkey State Waterworks, said that one of the things that impresses him most about Americans is "their intense activity."

"Your people are a moving people — always moving from one town to another, one home to another, one job to anther," f he explained, adding that America "truly seems to be a land of opportunity."

Kutay has been the guest of Vernon Parker and Perry Watson, regional engineers with the Monroe Regional health office located at the Ouachita Parish Health unit here. He was sent by his country to America through the Agency for Industrial Development to study our water supply system and water treatment plants.

His visit here has been the first leg on a series of observatory visits throughout the United States. He has traveled about 200 miles a day while here, visiting water treatment plants and sewer treatment plants throughout the area. He will be in this country for six months.

Kutay hopes to learn, through observation, methods of water treatment which can be applied in his own country where 20 per cent of the population has a water supply problem. He leaves this morning for Lafayette and will travel from there to New Orleans.

He explained that he thought Louisiana was very much like his native country in the terrain, population distribution and climate. "I have felt very much at home here," Kutay stated.

He said his division, established in 1960, has the job of supplying water for 20million citizens in Turkey with only a $500-million budget. He added that this budget has to be stretched to last for 15 years, at which time he hopes the water supply problem in his country will have been brought under control.

Kutay, who holds the Master's degree from Istanbul Technical University, has been with the Turkey government five and one-half years. His wife, Mrs. Ferihan Kutay, is accompanying him on this trip while their four children are back home in Ankara, Turkey, attending school. He proudly said the chil-ment plants and all other con-

dren, three boys and a girl, all speak very "good English."

According to the visiting Turk, "there is very little difference in your small cities and your large cities. They all have shopping centers, running water, piped into houses, water treatveniences.

"This is not so in my country," the engineer said. He explained that in Turkey only the large cities have conveniences, shopping centers and such.

According to Kutay, the small villages differ in population from 100 to 3,000 but the average village has only about 500 persons living in it. These villages have a "community fountain" where water is supplied by the Turkey government. This fountain is where the villagers obtain their drinking water, water for personal use and for their livestock.

"Water for the animals in our country is a very important problem," Kutay said. He added that if the people wanted the water piped to their homes, they must do the piping themselves. In many villages, according to Kutay, there is no fresh water supply. He said one fountain may supply several villages.

"Therefore, many of the smaller towns have no fresh water and must travel quite a distance in order to obtain the fresh water from the community fountain," Kutay explained.

He said the Turkey government hopes to alleviate this problem within the next 15 years through the State Waterworks and his division. "We hope to incorporate some of your methods of treatment into our system," he said. Kutay stated that most of the water in his country comes from springs and deep wells.

"Since most of my people are farmers, water is very important to them," he said.

Local Teacher For 50 Years To Be Honored

A public reception will be held Sunday for Sister Magdalen, D.C., who leaves this month for Shreveport after completing 50 years of teaching at St. Matthew's Parochial School and its predecessor, St. Hycienth's.

The reception will be held in the Knights of Columbus Hall on Oliver Road from 5 to 7 p.m. Among the activities scheduled at the reception will be presentation of a plaque on behalf of the City of Monroe, presented by Mayor W. L. Howard; a gift from the Knights of Columbus, given by Anthony Messina, Grand Knight; a special award by Mrs. Leo Ritter, vice-regent of the Catholic Daughters of America; and a presentation by Mrs. Florence Filhiol for the St. Matthew's Altar Society.

Members of the six Roman Catholic Churches, including all organizations within the churches and schools, will honor Sister Magdalen at a Pontifical Low Mass at St. Matthew's Church Sunday morning. The celebrant at the Low Mass will be his Excellency Charles Greco, Bishop of the Diocese of Alexandria. The sermon will be preached by the Rt. Rev. Msgr. J. C. Marsh, pastor at St. Matthews.

Although many refer to Sister Magdalen's transfer to Shreveport and St. Vincent Academy as a "well-earned retirement," she will continue to work with young people.

Sister Magdalen, a native of Brest, France, came to America shortly after the turn of the century.

Ouachita River Nearing Crest

The Ouachita River is expected to crest here about Tuesday at 35.8 feet according to the U.S. Corps of Engineers.

A higher crest had been expected, but due to control measures taken on the Mississippi River, it will not be reached. The river is currently measured at 32.8 feet.

Flood stage for the Ouachita River is 40 feet. No flooding of lowland areas is expected.

Nixon Would Run – If Asked

OMAHA, Neb. (UPI) —Richard M. Nixon said Friday he is ready to battle President Johnson for the presidency if Republican National Convention delegates feel he is "best qualified to lead the fight."

Nixon said, however, he was not campaigning for write-in votes in remaining presidential primaries and not participating in a movement to stop any announced candidate for the GOP nomination.

He dismissed as too remote for comment the possibility that he would be selected as Republican vice presidential nominee.

"If the delegates feel I am best qualified to lead the fight against President Johnson, then I am ready to do the job," Nixon said.

Nixon discussed party politics and a broad range of domestic and international issues at a news conference which lasted nearly an hour. He addressed a Brotherhood Week fund-raising dinner here Thursday night.

The 1960 GOP presidential nominee told reporters his mission now was to seek unity within the party behind the delegates' choice for the White House.

He said he was "not campaigning in Nebraska, or in Oregon, or anywhere else where primaries remain, for write-in support."

But he said if voters "of their own volition'" wish to support him for the nomination, he will "not try to affect that decision one way or the other."

Nixon said Nebraskans who support Goldwater should vote for him. He said voters with other favorites should exercise the privilege of writing in their names.

Let Home People Do It

There is just one thing southern state, county (or parish) and city police officers want when the question of controlling marches, demonstrations, rioting, law-violation and violence by mobs organized by integration fanatics comes up. That is to be let alone by officers of the federal government.

Everyone, including the Washington administration, knows that without federal support the rioters would have been stopped and jailed so fast that not one person in 100 would have known anything was going on — if it had occurred, which it wouldn't. Without that support, there would have been no attempts at rioting because all those who have participated in the law violations would have known they could not get away with it and that they would be stopped in their tracks — and punished, if necessary.

One well known news commentator said:

"The aim of the agitators and terrorists is to create an insurrectionary state in America by midsummer. Every thinking citizen should be aware of this aim and support measures to discipline the agitators who want to plunge the nation into strife and bloodshed."

There is not one single state in the south that does not believe it could handle the rioting situation with great dispatch if let alone by the federal government. If city police, sheriff's officers and state police couldn't stop the rioters in their tracks so fast it would make the heads of the demonstrators swim the national guard could be called in to finish the job. No state ever had serious trouble with this type of agitators before the federal government interfered.

There are some who attribute the integration demonstrations directly to the communists but if this is true those communists would have to reveal their identity and declare open warfare before there would be any need of federal assistance in quelling the agitators.

Continuing, the analyst said in part:

"While the U.S. senate debates the 'civil rights' act of 1964, which would impose a pattern of rigid regimentation on our free society, the danger of agitators turning to mass sabotage is becoming a reality."

It is true that in New York City, in a state which has outdistanced the federal government in enacting integration legislation and catering to the Negroes, members of the Congress of Racial Equality announced they were contemplating turning on water faucets all over the city to create a crisis.

What would happen, of course, if this threat were carried out by a multitude of CORE followers would be a serious depletion of New York's water supply. If the summer were hot and drouth set in, disaster could result. Firefighters might not have the water to extinguish blazes. Thousands, if not millions, of innocent men, women and children would be exposed to hardship and possibly real danger to their health and safety. Whatever way one considers this proposal, it is an outline for sabotage that should shock the nation into realization that there are ruthless anarchists in our midst.

For quite a number of years, residents of New York, Chicago and some other cities have had it hammered into them by officials and officers that the Negro is always right. This has become so ingrained that peace officers in northern states might not handle riot situations, if let alone, quite as readily as they would in the south but there has been some indication that all they need to enforce the law is a go-ahead sign from those in higher authority and a let-alone understanding with federal authorities. This was demonstrated when the announced integration blockade and assault upon the World's Fair in New York was nipped with unexpected dispatch.

Regarding anarchism, an outstanding southern commentator said:

"As for who is at the bottom of this anarchism, that should be clear. It is the communists and their fellow travelers. This has been evident to informed conservatives for a number of years . . . At long last many people, even among moderate 'liberals,' are beginning to wake up to what is going on. Highly significant was the recent statement by Joseph Alsop, syndicated writer and friend of the Kennedys, who wrote that the communists are infiltrating the 'civil rights' groups. He named groups and individuals that are accepting Communist party collaboration and advice and that are adopting the insurrectionary goals of the Reds.

"Suddenly, the northern cities especially are experiencing the revolt and terrorism and sabotage that are a part of it.

"It is time that every decent element in America consider what harm is being done to the republic through the astonishing and shameful spread of violence.

"Once the good people of America realize what is going on and what is threatened for the summer months, they must demand that congress, state legislatures and municipal governments take steps to restore order and prevent further strife.

The United States supreme court apparently supported law violations when it ruled that intrusion carried on in the name of integration was not illegal.

Again we say that, with anything less than an outright communist uprising, the states in the south need only the upholding of law and order from the supreme court and freedom from interference by the federal government. In such a situation, they can handle anything that comes up.

Maybe They're Cheaper

People should practice what they preach before they write to their congressmen. That was the reaction of Senator Kenneth B. Keating, R., N.Y., when he received a request from a constituent.

"Why doesn't the government put a high tariff on more imported goods so our gold supply won't run out?" the citizen inquired.

"A good point," Keating replied. "But, so far as I can make out, a typical American is one who comes home from an Italian movie in his German car, has Brazilian coffee out of an English mug, sits down in his Danish chair and picks up a Japanese ballpoint pen to write his congressman to support 'buy American' legislation."

The senator's point also sounds good, except for a few things, such as: our huge foreign aid give-away program goes a long way toward dealing us an unfavorable trade balance, and that drains away our gold; labor unions have run the cost of production so high in this country that it is difficult for American industry to get prices down low enough to meet foreign competition; the federal government has purchasing contracts with some countries that cut down the remaining available market for commodities produced in this country, particularly farm products.

If Senator Keating's accusation against the typical American is true, it seems to be a case of the pot calling the kettle black, no matter which way you turn it. There is room for improvement both ways.

A Clergyman who bought Shakespear's house in Stratford-upon-Avon in the 18th century became so angry at sight-seer's peering over his fence that he hacked down a mulberry tree said to have been planted by the poet. The parson was run out of town after he demolished the house itself.

The wolf is almost extinct in the 48 contiguous states. It survives in appreciable numbers only in Alaska and parts of Canada.

Big Reduction In Tariff Feared By Congressmen

THE SESSION OF the General Agreements on Tariff and Trade organization, now underway in Geneva, is being viewed with uneasiness by a large portion of the United States economy.

This is made evident by speeches by both Democrats and Republicans in the House of Representatives. The greatest apprehension comes from livestock producers, but petroleum, steel, lead and zinc, shoes, textiles and other industries are expressing fear of what would happen if the 50 percent reduction in tariff became effective.

None of the members of the House who took the floor to discuss the GAAT session in Geneva argued for the return of protectionism in the sense it once existed. But as Representative Alton A. Lennon, Democrat, of North Carolina, emphasized, the United States has been cutting tariffs for 30 years, and the rates on many products have been cut to the quick. The average reduction in the protective effect of our tariff has been 80 percent. Our average rate of dutiable items now is only 12 percent.

REPRESENTATIVE Robert Dole, Republican, of Kansas, the State which ranks fourth in the nation in cattle population, said that in 1963 cattle growers in many cases had a loss exceeding $30 per head on cattle produced for the market. Other Congress members told of losses of $40 to $50 per head. The tariff cutting at Geneva could sound the death kneel to much of the cattle industry in the United States.

There were some rather formidable figures presented against any tariff cutting on beef at Geneva. Texas, the leading beef-producing State in 1952 produced and marketed 3,577,000 head of cattle, yet this was 523,000 less than the nation's 1963 beef imports. Beef imports also exceeded the beef produced and marketed in the combined States of North and South Dakota, Wyoming, Montana and Idaho.

Representative Clark Fisher, Democrat, Texas complained that under the new concept of the State Department "it would be the purpose to cut the tariff regardless of any injury that might be done to the domestic industry concerned. Imports are given the right of eminent domain in the United States domestic market and the domestic industry must give away if it cannot compete under the lower tariff rates."

FISHER, WHO represents a sheep and wool producing district, said that already hardly a month passes what at least one additional woolen textile mill does not close its doors because of low-cost imports of competitive products.

Representatives from California, Florida, Texas and Arizona, all big producers of tropical fruits and fresh vegetables, called on Christian Herter, special United States trade negotiator, to ask that these products be dropped from the GAAT negotiations.

Representative Tom Steed, Democrat, Oklahoma; Graham Purcell, Democrat, Texas; Ed Foreman, Republican, Texas, and Joe Skubitz, Republican, Kansas, expressed serious concern about petroleum imports.

And, Purcell, going on to the livestock situation, said "we hear a lot of talk that any controls of these imports of beef would be contrary to our trade policy. I submit that unless we take a much more firm stand at the GAAT negotiations, we will be placing our livestock industry and many other industries in real jeopardy. American agriculture, as far as I can determine, has lost out in every world trade agreement so far. I hope we can reverse this course."

REPRESENTATIVE Hastings Keith, Republican, Massachusetts, told the House, "I would not pretend to be an expert on GAAT, but I can speak with assurance when I say that the most important employers in my district — textiles, shoes, copper, and brass fabrications and the many others — cannot exist much longer in the face of a national policy that seems bent on giving every competitive break to foreign manufacturers."

Representative David N. Henderson, Democrat, North Carolina, citing that in 10 years 126 hardwood plywood manufacturers have gone out of business, predicted that any considerable decrease in the import duty on hardwood - plywood would simply wipe out that industry in the United States.

Representative John H. Dent, Democrat, Pennsylvania said:

"Seven years ago, in 1957, 1,155,000 tons of foreign-made steel were imported into the United States. Last year, in 1963, that influx had risen to about 5,500,000 tons. Conversely, in 1957, a total of 5,348,000 tons of American-made steel were sold in foreign markets. Last year the volume of these exports had dwindled to 2,180,000-000 tons."

Members of the House from all sections of the nation joined in with warning to the United States negotiators at Geneva.

The trade negotiations at Geneva in which the United States may cut its tariff 50 percent and become a very low tariff country, may last to a year or 18 months. Congress seems set to discuss it about as exhaustively as will the GAAT negotiators.

DR. PETER J. STEINCROHN

Placebo Method Has Its Effects

DEAR DR. STEINCROHN: What is meant by a placebo? Is it a medicine that isn't supposed to do any good?—Mrs. Y.

Comment: There would be little sense in prescribing anything unless there was hope it would help. No doubt what you have heard is that sometimes the doctor prescribes a medicine that isn't supposed to have any specific value (for example, unlike quinine in malaria). He just hopes that it will help the patient.

I have been reading in the Journal of the American Medical Association, an article written by A. M. Marcus, called "Placebo Effect," which first appeared in the British Columbia Medical Journal. Here are some excerpts:

"The experienced physician knows that in most of the minor psychiatric and pschosomatic conditions the potent therapeutic agent is the doctor himself. He can often get good results with whatever he prescribes, if he has good relationship with the patient, is able to spend time with him and tries to understand his problems.

"An operational definition of a placebo (Leslie, 1945) is: 'A medicine or preparation which has no inherent pertinent pharmacological activity but which is effective only by virtue of the factor of suggestion attendant upon its administration. The substance may be ingested, inserted, inhaled or applied . . .'

OLD AS HISTORY OF MEDICINE

"It (placebo) is older than its oldest definition; existing since before 1500 B. C. The history of medicine was the history of the placebo. The patient of 1500 B.C. had available to him such drugs as opium, mandragora, squill, iron and salt. He was also treated with such medications as lizard's blood, teeth of swine, and the hoof of an ass. In all the pages of Hippocrates no treatment of specific value is to be found, yet in spite of this and the continued prescriptions of spermatic fluid of frogs, animal secretions, and holy oil, the physician then, as today, continued to be regarded as a useful, respected and highly honored member of society . . .

"Medical reasoning was quite primitive. The fat of a bear, a hirsute animal, was given to those suffering from baldness, the lungs of a fox were given to consumptives because the fox was long-winded. Montaigne in the 16th century said that doctors in general were a danger to their pateint. Maimonides in the 17th century said: 'I call him a perfect physician who judges it better to abstain from treatment than prescribe one which might perturb the course of the maladie.' . . . The placebo has always been a form of medical practice . . . The effectiveness of the placebo lies in the action, ritual, faith and enthusiasm on the part of both doctor and patient."

MR. D.: We have come a good, long way since the days when the choice of an anesthetic ranged between chloroform, ether, or a good slug of brandy. The expert anesthesiologist has many modern chemicals and gases to choose from. But this places upon him added responsibility for the patient's welfare. For example he must be aware of the potential explosive nature of some; and the fact that in others, even the injection of adrenalin may tend to cause some heart irregularity. Modern surgery can be thankful that the art of putting you to sleep has kept pace with surgical progress.

MRS. J.: You know you don't mean it. Resentment will get you nowhere; but oh, how your ulcer loves to feed on it.'

Dr. Steincrohn's leaflet, "Allergy — Disguised Attacker," will be mailed to you on receipt of a stamped, self - addressed envelope and 10 cents in coin for handling. Address your request to Dr. Steincrohn, in care of this newspaper.

Senator Soaper Says

Some salesmen use tape devices to answer their telephones, while others feel this lacks the personal touch. Perhaps a compromise would be a machine that started out, "Hello, you old hoss thief. This is a recording."

WILLIAM F. BUCKLEY, JR.

Possible Suicide Of West Is Seen

IT IS A GLOOMY thing to do, but for those of us who love the West a necessary exercise; to look to the future, taking account of the contraction of the West's boundaries during the last two generations, and ask, Will the West survive? The answer of course is that it will not unless the present trend is reversed. Every day, in every way, the enemy seems either to be making progress on its own specific account, or else to succeed in diluting the defenses of the West. One month the Communists will take over a fresh country — Cuba, say; another, the Communists will persuade a Western country to diminish its opposition — persuade France, say, to recognize the legitimacy of the Communist government in China. What will one thousand such transactions add up to, if not the defeat of the West?

But will it strictly speaking have been a defeat? Or will it have been a prolonged act of suicide? The latter. That is the conclusion of an American writer and philosopher who is perhaps better equipped than any other American to say why, and to say why convincingly, readably, galvanizingly. Those who seek to know what are the root complaints of American conservatives against American policy in the nuclear age can learn it now, between the covers of a single volume. It is called Suicide of the West, it is written by James Burnham, and is subtitled, "The Meaning and Destiny of Liberalism." Mr. Burnham's thesis is that there is such a thing as an ideology of liberalism, that it has come to dominate Western thought, and that it has a way of incapacitating us from the exercise of judgments that are appropriate to meeting the crisis of our time — appropriate to achieving our own deliverance.

CONSIDER A NUMBER of apparently unrelated events in our recent history events which turned out to bear significantly on America's strength and standing. When on that Tuesday night in April of 1961 President Kennedy was asked to supply air cover to the liberation forces at the Bay of Pigs, he said No—he was afraid of offending Latin American opinion. When France and England begged the United States not to interfere with the military action aimed at recovering the Suez isthmus (key to Africa and the Middle East), President Eisenhower turned a deaf ear — afraid of the stigma of colonialism. After President Truman got the Soviet Union's signature on the terms of the Potsdam Agreement, he declined to press for compliance—afraid of offending Good Old Joe, whose mellowing heart was the central anticipation of his foreign policy. As day by day the situation in South Vietnam worsens, we nevertheless decline to strike at the logistical bases of the guerrillas in North Vietnam — we fear escalation.

Or come home: A department chairman of a major university declines to promote a young member of his faculty — on the grounds that his views are too conservative. American moralizers pounce on the John Birch Society as a threat from within and studiously ignore the Committee of Correspondence which advocates universal surrender—because the left is the wave of the future. A monopoly labor union ties up all the newspapers in New York, and all the shipping along the Atlantic seaboard but protests are perfunctory — one does not take action against the working class. Day after day it is revealed that enemy agents are succeeding in mining the secret archives of our defense system but isolated calls for strengthening our loyalty security procedures are rebuffed—for fear of the taint of McCarthyism.

IT REQUIRES SUPERB powers of synthesis to take hold of such diverse phenomena as these and dozens of others and demonstrate how they all relate to a particular and identifiable social philosophy or world view. Moreover the demonstration of their inter-relatedness is not made by legerdemain. Mr. Burnham does not pull any cute tricks, for the benefit of making quickie debaters' points. He has done a job which is the ultimate tax on the intellectual talents of an individual who addresses himself to strategic organization: he has delved into myriad disorderly data and come up with a synthesis. Moreover, one which will appeal to the reader (20,000 of them already, according to the publisher, and only three weeks after publication) as a work of cogency and plausibility, and of such timeliness as to add up to revelation.

A word about the author. Once upon a time James Burnham was a follower of Leon Trotsky. If I may be risque', I must say that I am almost glad: because there is much to be learned from the sweep of Trotsky's thought, from the inside knowledge of Communist tactics, and from his close reasoning habits. Since then he has written several other important books, always combining his intellectual skills (he was professor of philosophy at New York University at age 25) and his journalistic skills (he has written for everything from Partisan Review to The Reader's Digest).

Albert Jay Nock used to say that if one thousand Americans could have been got to read Herbert Spencer's Social Statics, America would have been saved. He was exaggerating. I say if one hundred thousand Americans could be got to read Suicide of the West, America would be . . . No: I won't say it. But I am not exaggerating.

RALPH DE TOLEDANO

Campaign 'Zany' In Both Parties

"THIS," AN exasperated congressman said, "is just about the zaniest campaign I have ever seen."

He was referring to the preconvention festivities in both the Democratic and Republican parties. Each camp has its perplexities and its unpredictabilities. Both parties find themselves in situations that follow none of the old ground rules.

Among the Democrats, there is the little matter of Alabama's Governor George Wallace, riding high after the Wisconsin primary, and seemingly destined to ride even higher before the month is out. An avowed segregationist, he is showing surprising strength in the North — bringing more than a little concern into the lives of Democratic strategists.

Among the Republicans, there are the Goldwater performance and the Lodge phenomenon. Senator Barry Goldwater continues to confound the political observers. The polls persistently count him out. But Republican voters and party officials with equal persistence give him delegates. And as everyone knows, it is not the public opinion pollster but the delegate who nominates a Presidential candidate.

At the same time, Republicans, presumably thinking in party terms, write in Ambassador Henry Cabot Lodge's name on Presidential preference ballots even though he is an integral part of the Kennedy - Johnson Administration's foreign policy apparatus — and substantially the architect of GOP-Condemned activities in Vietnam.

MR. GOLDWATER'S delegate strength has begun seriously to worry the Eastern Republican kingmakers whose efforts to count him out don't seem to work this time. So far, what was once a mighty army in the Republican Party has been reduced to a congeries of guerrilla groups which cannot combine their operations against the Goldwater movement. As a result, the Goldwater delegate total grows with each passing week.

The look of amused unbelief which once crept over the faces of newspapermen when Senator Goldwater announced the number of delegates he had sewed up has now been replaced by incredulous acceptance. There are some in the Washington press corps who now insist that the tally has been deliberately kept low — that, in fact, the Goldwater forces are stronger in delegates than they want the world to know.

What that strength is remains one of the most guarded secrets of the Goldwater camp. But writing in National Review Bulletin (May 12 issue), M. Stanton Evans, editor of the Indianapolis News, offers a mid-April estimate. Mr. Evans is an astute reporter and his sources of information in the conservative wing of the Republican Party are excellent. He gives Senator Goldwater, on a tentative basis, some 520 delegates, distributed as follows:

"ALABAMA, 20 votes; Arizona, 16; Arkansas, 12; Florida, 28; Georgia, 20; Idaho, 14; Illinois, 45; Indiana, 28; Kansas 16; Louisiana, 20; Maryland, 10; Michigan, 10; Minnesota, 13; Mississippi, 13; Missouri, 12; Montana, 14; Nebraska, 12; Nevada, 4; New Jersey, 2; New Mexico, 14; North Carolina, 26; Oklahoma, 22; Pennsylvania, 8; Tennessee, 10; Texas, 56; Utah, 14; Virginia, 30; Washington State, 14; West Virginia 5,; Wyoming, 12."

I would say that this is perhaps a little optimistic in some instances. For example, I do not think that, as of now, the Goldwater forces claim more than 38 of the Illinois delegates. In Pennsylvania, I doubt that Mr. Goldwater can muster eight delegate votes. On the other hand, I believe that he will show surprising strength in New York State, Governor Nelson Rockefeller's bailiwick.

County Releases Rights Workers In Mississippi

HOLLY SPRINGS, Miss. (AP)—Six civil rights workers have been released after questioning by Marshall County authorities.

Officers identified the six as Larry Wolf Rubin, 22, of Philadelphia, Pa.; Clennon Douglas Smith, 18, of Hattiesburg; John Patsworth, 43, of London, England; Richard Frey, 22, of Philadelphia, Pa.; Alvin Carl Packer, 18, of Hattiesburg, Miss., and William Henry Rogers, 17, of Greenwood, Miss.

Lafayette County Sheriff Boyce Bratton said he had jailed the six earlier for driving a car with improper tail lights.

Rubin was fined and released and Smith also was fined, but on another traffic violation.

Bratton said the group told him they were working for the Student Non-Violent Coordinating Committee and the Council of Federated Organizations.

The sheriff said Patsworth, in this country on a temporary visa, had notes in his possession that indicated he was in Jacksonville, Fla., during the recent demonstrations there.

Special guests of honor will be members of the Wheelers and Dealers and the Twin City Twirlers, other square dance fanciers.

The event is set for 7:30 p.m. in the National Guard Armory, 218 S. Grand St.

Solves Problem

Finding a curtain operator is no longer a problem at the parish's Pinecrest School, according to Principal Wamul Owens.

The school has acquired a new set of stage curtains pulled by an electric motor operated by remote control. All in all, a fascinating gadget.

Owens notes that "a large number" of students have volunteered their services.

Red Cross Sets Swim Classes Signup Dates

Registration for the free summer swimming classes sponsored by the Ouachita Parish Red Cross Chapter will be held Tuesday and Wednesday at the chapter headquarters, 200 S. Grand St.

Mrs. Tony Veazey, Red Cross director, said no registrations will be accepted over the telephone. She said parents can register their children between 8:30 a.m. and 4:30 p.m., and to be eligible, the child must have completed the first grade. She pointed out that parents must register for children, and a medical is required.

Classes will begin June 2 at 7 a.m. to 8 a.m. in Swayze Natatorium in Forsythe Park. Volunteers will be needed to assist.

Klan Official Says All-Negro Band Can Play

A state official for the Ku Klux Klan said here Friday that the Negro band being hired for a white school dance in Natchitoches will not be integrated.

The spokesman had reference to an item published Friday afternoon that called attention to the plans of a white Roman Catholic parents group to hire a Negro band for the school graduation dance May 24. The item said the band was being hired despite the recent halting of another Negro band at a simular function.

The spokesman for the KKK said that his group wanted to state publicly they had no objections to "all Negro" groups playing for white dances. He said their organization objects to "integrated bands" playing at white schools, and this was the case of the other band which was halted from playing at Natchitoches earlier.

Firing Squad To Execute Diem Brother

SAIGON, South Viet Nam (AP)—Despite pleas for mercy from the United States, Ngo Dinh Can, younger brother of the slain President Ngo Dinh Diem, was scheduled to die Saturday before a firing squad.

U.S. Ambassador Henry Cabot Lodge interceded for Can, 53, the former viceroy of central Viet Nam who was convicted of murder, corruption, extortion and misuse of power.

Lodge appealed directly to strongman Premier Nguyen Khanh. Washington authorities were concerned that the public execution would harm the image of the Viet Nam government at a time when it was fighting for its life against the Communist Viet Cong.

Lodge said Friday night he had been told his plea was under advisement.

The revolutionary court also decreed a firing squad death for Phan Quang Dong, 36, an aide to Can convicted of similar charges.

Can ruled the northern capital, Hue, 400 miles from Saigon, and the surrounding provinces with an iron hand until his brother was overthrown last November and killed. Throughout his trial he maintained he was innocent.

HARVARD SPRING RIOT

Police Use 4 Dogs To 'Herd' Students

CAMBRIDGE, Mass. (AP)—Police broke up a student spring riot early Friday after bringing in four police dogs to herd a crowd of unruly participants off the streets.

The spring fever riot had begun in a mild way, with a couple of hundred students, many from Harvard and Radcliffe, gathering near the Charles River.

The crowd grew as they paraded to Harvard Square, a couple of blocks away, and then to the Radcliffe campus, where a few male students who tried to climb the ivy-covered dormitory walls were discouraged when doused with pails of water.

The crowd returned to the riverside, blocking traffic on Memorial Drive, which runs along the river, with a number of Harvard dormitory buildings bordering it.

Police were called to clear blocked traffic.

The Harvard dean of men, Robert B. Watson, using a loudspeaker on a police care, appealed to the students to leave. They ignored him.

Police then brought in the four dogs. The crowd was estimated variously at 1,000 to 4,000.

The paraders had been waving branches from a row of sycamore trees which border the drive, chanting "Save our sycamores" — a reference to planned destruction of the trees for a highway project.

When the dogs appeared, the crowd began chanting "Birmingham, Birmingham" and "Cambridge, Cambridge," in reference to racial disturbances in those Alabama and Maryland cities.

Police said beer cans, bottles and firecrackers were thrown at them.

The leashed dogs proved effective in clearing the streets and riverbanks.

There were no injuries.

Four persons were taken into custody but were released after being held overnight.

Khrushchev Suffering In 'Words War'

AP Special Correspondent

Soviet Premier Khrushchev is suffering painful rebuffs and may be headed for humiliating defeats in his war of epithets with Red China's Mao Tze-tung.

Red China's latest blast at the Soviet party bristles with confidence. At the same time, a fear of progressive disintegration of the world Communist movements had generated stubborn unwillingless, even among his friends, to do Khrushchev's bidding and clear the way for a frontal assault on Mao's brand of communism.

Khrushchev already has lost for the Kremlin its onetime privilege of dictating to Communist leaders around the world.

NEWS ANALYSIS

And now comes a scornful Peking rejection of the Kremlin's call for conferences which, in effect, appears a declaration that Peking will not negotiate with Moscow until Khrushchev is either retired, deposed or dead.

The Red Chinese have won the support of revolution-minded Communists around the world. Peking stands to wind up with the active Communist movement, and the Moscow party in charge only of the passive one which weighs risks involved in expansion of Red influence and control.

The Kremlin is making an attempt to rejoin the battle for leadership of revolution in Asia, Africa and Latin America. One indication of this is in a new approach to chaotic Indonesia, which has generated a potentially explosive situation in Southeast Asia with its unbridled campaign to crush the new state of Malaysia.

The Soviet Union had been supplying President Sukarno's Indonesian regime with expensive military hardware to the point where Khrushchev informed the Indonesians they were keeping him broke.

Now the U.S.S.R. is offering to step up that aid. This could signal an attempt to put up a fight for influence among parties in what the Communists call the "new emerging forces"—underdeveloped areas pregnant with violence and offering attractive prospects for future Red takeover.

Evidently, Moscow is feeling the Red Chinese heat and is of a mind to put up a more active contest in such areas. Khrushchev now is launched on a visit to Egypt and plans a tour which primarily seems aimed at countering rising Red Chinest influence.

Red China has the advantage in such areas. Its approach is more attractive to revolutionaries. The Chinese want action. The Russians seem to inhibit violence for fear of uncontrollable consequences. To many a Communist, therefore, the Red Chinese are the true heirs of Lenin.

What remains for Khrushchev is a party without the dynamism which had been its insurance in the past against stagnation.

Traffic Cases Headline Docket In West Monroe

Traffic cases headed the docket in West Monroe City Court Friday with Judge John F. McCormick presiding over a brief session.

Fined for driving while intoxicated were Bruce A. Hollis, 23, of 806 Cypress, St., $300; and John Oscar Hill, 49, Belle Glade, Fla., $300. Hollis was also fined $50 for no drivers license.

Fined for speeding were Ben Forest Brown, 48, 728 Lakeshore Dr., Monroe, $15; Glen E. Ramsey, 21, 1320 N. 7th St., $10; William Farr, 22, 2806 Cypress St., $10; Henry J. Mack, 18, 323 Class St., $10; J. D. Smith, 45, P. O. Box 423, $10. Charges of speeding against Sibyl B. Neill, 42, of West Monroe were withdrawn.

Two persons were fined $10 each for reckless driving. Gussie G. Duty, 66, 9B Breece Apts., and Terral J. Sanford, 39, 205 Western Ave., were both fined for the offense. Dortie Moore, 32, 77A Carver Homes, Monroe, was found not guilty to charges of reckless driving.

Dorothy Regan, 32, of 104 Gerry St., was given a three months suspended sentence for operating a vehicle in an unfit physical condition due to taking barbituates. She was also fined $25 for reckless driving.

Herbert Honeycutt, 38, of 502 Herman St., was fined $25 for simple battery.

Billy Ray Williams, 38, of 109 S. 1st. St., was fined $50 for theft. Other cases handled were for minor traffic violations.

FLEEING YOUTH KILLED

BERLIN (UPI) — Communist border guards shot and killed a young West Berliner as he crawled over a border "death strip," the Reds revealed Friday.

The Communist organ Neues Deutschland pulished what it called "the facts" of the slaying this week of Adolf Philipp, 20, on the border between the British sector of West Berlin and East Germany.

Philipp's body was returned to West Berlin authorities Wednesday.

Underpass Play Warning Issued

Monroe police officials Friday issued a warning to children playing on the South Second Street underpass embankment.

Assistant Chief Sidney Martin said his department had received several complaints from motorist of children sliding down the embankment in cardboard boxes. One motorist claimed he almost hit a box in the street, only to see a child emerge.

All patrolmen in the area have been instructed to take any children caught playing on the bank to the parents, Martin said.

Marshals Seize 2nd Supply Of Wrinkle Cream

WASHINGTON (UPI) — The government cracked down Friday on a second anti - wrinkle cream, charging that it was being sold under false claims and without proper licensing.

Acting on orders of the Food and Drug Administration (FDA) U.S. marshals seized a shipment of the cream, Sudden Change, at North Miami Beach, Fla.

A shipment of another anti-wrinkle cream, Magic Secret, marketed by Helene Curtis, was seized by the government at Baltimore on April 30.

In both cases, the government charged that the creams were drugs and were being marketed without a new drug application as required by law. The FDA also charged that both creams falsely claimed permanent change in the skin condition of those using them.

Papers filed in the U.S. District Court at North Miami Beach charged that Sudden Change is "not generally recognized as safe and effective by qualified experts for prolonged continued use."

It said Sudden Change was misbranded because its labeling is misleading to the ordinary consumer.

The court papers said the labeling gives middle age women the impression that "this is an amazing newly discovered article and will almost immediately eliminate her wrinkles."

Madison Parish Alumni Chapter Elects Officers

TALLULAH (Special) — Boone Halbach was elected president of the Madison Parish Chapter of the Northeast Louisiana State College Alumni Association at a meeting earlier this week which featured Coach Dixie White of NLSC as the main speaker.

Halbach, a 1953 graduate of Northeast State, holds his master's degree from Mississippi College. He is supervisor of the Madison Parish School System.

Dixie Cox Canterbury, a 1956 graduate of NLSC, was elected vice president of the Chapter. Charles L. Porter, who graduated in 1957, was re-elected secretary-treasurer.

Miss Jane Sevier was named publicity director. She is a 1958 graduate and holds her master's degree from Mississippi College.

White outlined the NLSC athletic picture for the group and answered questions from the floor.

The chapter took action on its scholarship program, voting to continue its plan of providing one $50 scholarship each semester for a Madison Parish resident to attend Northeast State.

Attending from the College besides White were James F. Hawkins, alumni executive secretary, and Miss Lynn Garrett, editor of the Alumni News.

Texas Women, Negro Injured In Area Crash

JONESVILLE (Special) — Two Texas women and a Jonesville Negro were injured in a two-car collision at the Black River bridge near here Friday.

According to investigating state police, a car driven by Ben Durr of Port Arthur, Tex., was traveling east on U. S. Highway 84 when it collided with a car driven by Johnny Huff, a 77-year-old Negro, which was coming onto the highway from the south.

Durr's wife and Mrs. G. C. Smith of Port Neches, Tex., who was a passenger in the Durr car, were taken to Jefferson Davis Hospital in Natchez, Miss., state police reported.

Huff, who was charged with reckless driving, was taken to a clinic in Jonesville. The extent of injuries of those involved was not immediately known.

The accident happened about 6:15 p.m. on the Concordia Parish side of the bridge.

The selection was made during a regular club meeting and a certificate was presented to Dean Folk at the Louisiana Collegiate Soil Judging banquet here.

This award is made four outstanding service in the field of agriculture.

Area Airport Contract Let

COLUMBIA (Special) — The Caldwell Parish Police Jury has been notified by the Department of Public Works that a contract for a new airport here has been awarded.

The contract went to Bentz and Elmore of Monroe for $74,000.

Work will be carried out by the Department of Public Works. The police jury has asked the state to pave and maintain a road to the site off U. S. Hwy. 165 north of here.

Military Order Of World Wars Organized Here

The Military Order of the World Wars has been organized on a local basis, according to Maj. G. Fred Beckett.

Beckett said the Monroe chapter of the MOWW is part of a national organization with chapters throughout the country. Headquarters is in Washington, D. C.

Commissioned officers who served during major world conflicts are eligible for membership.

Beckett said the principal aim of the organization was to "promote a higher level of patriotism and foster Americanism."

Major O. E. Brandon Jr. addressed the group at its organizational meeting Thursday night.

Well How To Keep

By Dr. Theodore Van Dellen

LICK STREP INFECTIONS

VIRUSES have made the headlines so often, bacteria such as streptococci have been neglected. These micro-organisms were the scourge of a generation ago, before the sulfonamides and antibiotics decreased their importance. But they remain with us, and certain types (beta-hemolytic) trigger such well known ailments as rheumatic fever and Bright's disease (acute glomerular nephritis).

The strep bug is a problem today — but it need not be, because we know how to handle it. The method is simple: A throat swab and culture can be made on every child with a sore throat or tonsilitis. When the beta hemolytic strep is found to be the culprit, an antibiotic is administered in adequate dosage for a sufficient length of time to eliminate these bacteria from the system.

If this were done religiously, there would be a considerable lowering of the incidence of rheumatic fever and kidney infection. These diseases practically never occur when treatment of sore throat is started within 48 hours. In addition, there would be fewer ear and sinus infections. The number of strep infections in the neighborhood would be reduced because the patient becomes noninfectious to others within 34 hours after therapy.

How does a physician know whether a strep throat exists? He cannot tell merely by looking, as different micro-organisms are capable of causing redness and swelling of throat and tonsils, along with fever and pain on swallowing. The only way to find out is to remove some of the secretions with a sterile cotton pledget and send to the laboratory.

A quick and less expensive method is available to make the determination. This removes the objection of high cost. In some cities, Chicago for one, the health department and heart association are pushing the plan mainly as a preventive for rheumatic fever.

This disease is more likely to be triggered by the virulent strains of beta hemolytic streptococci. In the future, we may find treatment is needed only when the stronger organisms are present.

REPLY

No, except those contained in warm milk, a nightcap that seems to help some persons. Send stamped, self-addressed envelope for leaflet on insomnia.

DIURETIC ACTION

M. E. writes(Does a diuretic cause excessive sweating?

REPLY

No — excessive urination. The main object of diuretics is to eliminate sodium, which accumulates in the body and leads to waterlogged tissues (edema).

PAINFUL SITTING

E. K. writes: When I sit, it hurts. I have flat feet. Could this be responsible?

REPLY

Not if it hurts where I think it does.

HEIGHT AND WEIGHT

E. M. writes: Do you think 168 pounds is too much for a 36 year old woman?

REPLY

Not if she is a 6 footer.

SEEK ATTITUDE CHANGE

Methodists Ask Arms Race End

PITTSBURGH (UPI) — The General Conference of the Methodist Church, in a sweeping appraisal of world conditions, called Friday for an end to the "suicidal" arms race and urged the U.S. government to reconsider its attitudes toward Red China and Cuba.

At the same time the conference, concluding its 1954 quadrennial session, declined to take a stand on the question of whether prayer should be returned to public schools.

Without debate, the conference endorsed a report from its committee on social concerns that asked for the policy revaluation.

"It is our judgment that policies of isolation toward mainland China and Cuba should be carefully re-examined to determine whether their continuance will not intensify bitterness, and imprison rather than free the people in those lands from hardships, repression and authoritarian control," the report said.

"…We urge the United States and other nations to work toward improved cultural, economic and political relations with those countries and all countries."

The conference condemned military spending as "a drain on the economy."

"It does not stimulate in the most constructive way the economies of the nation," stated the conference. "It tends to distort research and deter expansion in the civilization sectors of most economies. It is wasteful of man's energies."

The conference attacked armament which "steadily undermines the foundations of civilization and progressively corrupts the souls of men."

"When nations contemplate the use of methods of warfare that would have been considered atrocity and genocide a few years ago…the human spirit is becoming corrupted and calloused to an extent that should give grave concern to the church," the report said.

The arms race, it said, is "immoral, futile, and suicidal. The use or threat of use of weapons which by their very nature are indiscriminate and difficult to control can not be morally justified."

"We remind the people and the leaders of all countries that no nation is ultimately sovereign. All nations and people are under the judgment of God. Scripture reminds us that in the eyes of God the welfare of the human race is more precious than the continued existence of any nation."

On other questions, the report inplored all countries to use the United Nations for the peaceful resolution of international disputes, urged that the U.N. to open to membership for all nations, and reaffirmed the Methodist Church's opposition to the peacetime draft.

The 900 delegates, who represent 10 million Methodists, sidestepped the question of school prayer by referring to committee a report on church-state relations and tabling a resolution which would have endorsed the Becker amendment to the U.S. Constitution.

The report on the church and state was a broad vehicle which opposed, among other things, restoration of prayer in the schools, public aid to parochial schools, observance of holday days in public classrooms and tax exemptions for church property.

The conference took no action on a proposal to make ministers subject to discipline when they fail to adhere to church policy on racial matters. It was ruled that provisions for such occurrences are already contained in the Methodist constitution.

Local Catholic Student Center Dedication Set

The Rev. Charles P. Greco, Bishop of the Diocese of Alexandria, will be the featured speaker at the dedication ceremonies today at 2 p.m. of the Catholic Student Center at Northeast Louisiana State College.

Bishop Greco will bless the center, located at 911 College Ave., while Pres. George T. Walker will speak in behalf of the college and Dean Clint Hanna will extend greetings from the office of Student Services.

An open house will be held Saturday afternoon for all students with refreshments and dancing following the dedication ceremonies. The center is subsidized by the Diocese of Alexandria and spported by the Knights of Columbus on a local and state level and the Catholic Daughters.

Highly Favored Indians After Loop Track Croun

Northeast State's track team competes in the annual Gulf States Conference meet Saturday, a heavy favorite to win its fifth league championship.

The meet begins at 10 a.m. Saturday in Southwestern's McNaspy Stadium in Lafayette with finals in the discus and triple jump and preliminaries in the track events. The finals in the 15 other events will be held beginning at 7 p.m.

Final event of the spring GSC meeting, the track meet will be followed by presentation of championship and coach-of-the-year awards in all spring sports as well as the presentation of the All-Sports Trophy.

If Northeast wins the track title, it will tie Northwestern for most GSC cinder championships won. Northwestern won five straight championships from 1953 through 1957. Northeast won in 1959 and 1960, was second in 1961 and moved back into first in 1962 and last year.

Northeast is favored to win on its usual combination of brilliant individual performers and plenty of depth.

This year's top star is Roger Morgan, the fastest U. S. Collegian in the high hurdles, a worthy successor to the Styron twins and John Pennel. Morgan warmed up for the conference meet by running the highs in 13.7 Saturday night.

The Indians are expected to dominate the hurdles with Morgan, Roger Mann, Dalton LeBlanc and Fred Vogel and could put all four in the top five of both the highs and 330 intermediates.

Slim Ronnie Fountain has recorded a 9.6 and 21.3 in the sprints and rates as a first-place threat in both.

Cline Averett has the best time of any GSC quarter-miler, 48.3, while John Baker has run a 48.7. Baker, however, has been sidelined with an injury and may not compete.

Gayland LeBlanc (1:54.4) and Jim Bodin (1:54.5) are expected to place high in the 880. Although Southwestern's Malcolm Robinson is expected to take the mile and two-mile easily, Indians Bill Smith and Tom Brown may place.

Relay strength is often decisive in the GSC meet and Northeast has recorded the league bests of 41.1 in the 440 relay and 3:13.1 in the mile. If Baker is unable to run, however, the mile team will be hard-pressed to win over a good McNeese foursome.

Northeast's most reliable and versatile field man, Tommy Edmonson, is not expected to compete. He has been side-lined with a pulled muscle since the Florida Relays.

Edmonson was Northeast's leader or co-leader in three events, the vault, triple jump and broad jump.

The Indians still have two good vaulters in Ronnie Overby and Paul Hobgood, both 14-footers, while Doug Constant has gone 22-11¾ in the broad jump and 45-10½ in the triple. Mann has a 22-9 broad jump to his credit.

Northeast has no strong high jump entry with Constant's 6-2 the team's best. Tommy Slack should place in the javelin, where his best is 207-3, and Gary Walker (best of 162-10¼) should make the top five in the discus. Walker's 45-4⅞ is the Tribe's best in the shot.

There is no clear favorite for second place in the meet. Southwestern, the 1963 runnerup, and Northwestern are rated the best bets, while Southeastern could surprise.

Tech Gets 10th Golf Crown In 12 Years

By EDGAR COLTHARP
World Sports Writer

LAFAYETTE — Louisiana Tech's freshmen studded golf team upset co-favorite Southwestern Louisiana and Northeast State here Friday to claim its 10th Gulf States Conference championship in the last 12 years.

The Bulldogs of Head Coach Joe Aillet, who have dominated conference golf since 1953, have now won the team title four straight times. Only a pair of McNeese State championships in 1959 and 1960 mar the Canine victory string over the 12-year period.

Tech toured the 54 holes with a 905 team total compared to second place USL's 911 and the third place Tribe's 921.

Favored Buddy Short of USL played his home Oakbourne Country Club course in a three-under par 209 to take medalist honors.

Northwestern's Don Scott was runnerup with a 218 total.

Tech's strength came from Lynn Morris who captured third place with a 222 and Lyn Fuller, in fourth place one stroke behind, with a 223.

In addition Tech's Clayton Koschel was seventh with 228 and Ronnie Planchard tied for 10th with 232.

Northwestern was fourth with a 931 total, followed by Southeastern at 985 and McNeese State with 1,003.

Chip Lyman of Northeast was fifth with 222, followed by teammate Mark Womack at 227.

In the eighth spot was Gene Eleazar of USL and Joe Data of Northwestern, both with 230.

Northeast's Ken Renwick was tied with Planchard in the 10th position with 232.

Roanoke Wins Class C State Thinlie Crown

NATCHITOCHES, La. (AP)—Roanoke won the state Class C prep track and field championship Friday as four class standards were shattered.

Cardell Dartez of Maurice skimmed to a record :14.9 clocking in the high hurdles and also won the low hurdles.

Butch Rascoe of Stanley hurled the shot 49 feet 6½ for another record while Trophy Avant of Hathaway shattered his own javelin mark with a toss of 175-11.

Larry Hargrave of Roanoke cleared 12 feet in the pole vault for a new mark and also ran legs in three winning relays.

Northeast Captures Tennis Crown Again

By EDGAR COLTHARP
World Sports Writer

LAFAYETTE — Richard Campbell, Northeast State's stellar number three man scored a key victory in the singles finals enabling Northeast to take five of seven firsts and the team title in the Gulf States Conference tennis finals, here Friday.

Northeast amassed twenty-five to the runnerup host, University of Southwestern Louisiana's nineteen. The tennis win practically assured the Tribe of taking their second straight all-sports trophy. Northeast is now tied with Louisiana Tech, each with twenty-six and one-half points, the Bulldogs having matched the Indians tennis win with a mild upset first place in golf.

Northeast is heavily favored to win the loop cinder meet here today.

Tech tied with Northwestern's Demons for third place in the tennis race, both with six points. Southeastern and McNeese State were shut out, having failed to place anyone in the finals.

The Tribe's Margo Alvarez repeated as GSC number one champ. He went through the season undefeated, losing only two sets for the year. Indian Bob Owen wound up his undefeated season by winning the number two singles title. He did not drop a set this spring.

Campbell, who lost only one match this year, bombed USL's Earl Turner, 6-1 6-3, to give the Tribe leverage they needed to win. One week earlier Turner had defeated Campbell in straight sets in a Monroe match.

USL placed four men in the singles finals to Northeast's three, but both Tribe doubles combinations made it to the finals while the Bulldogs only managed to place their number two unit.

Alvarez and Owen had little trouble taking Tech's Robert Taylor and Dennis Perry, 6-3, 6-2 in the number one doubles pairing.

In the first set, the Tribe twosome stepped out to a 3-0 lead only to have the Tech pair tie at 3-3 From that point, Alvarez and Owen dominated the match.

The number two doubles went to three sets before Campbell and Buddy Embanato downed USL's Dennis Aucion and Turner.

The Indian duo took a 6-4 first set, then dropped the second 2-6. They scrambled back with a convincing 6-2 victory for the Tribe to win the match.

Alvarez was never pressed by Northwestern's Danny Walker, winning 6-3 and 6-1. Owen toyed with Bob Rockhold of USL, taking straight sets, 6-1, 61.

Marichal In Shutout Win Over Dodgers

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—Right-hander Juan Marichal shut out Los Angeles on five hits Friday night for his fifth victory and Willie Mays drove in two runs with a sacrifice fly and his 11th homer as the San Francisco Giants whipped the Dodgers 3-0.

Dating back to 1963, the triumph was the 11th in a row for Marichal, who leads both major leagues in 1964 victories.

A crowd of 40,547 watched the National League-leading Giants capture the opener of the three-game series.

The Giants pecked at Dodger starter Phil Ortega for single runs in the third and fifth.

Matty Alou doubled to left opening the third, advanced on an infield out and scored on Mays' sacrifice fly. Jose Pagan doubled to open the fifth, was sacrificed to third by Marichal and scored on Matty Alou's infield single down the third base line.

Mays walloped Ortega's first pitch to him in the sixth 380 feet and over the left field fence. Mays also singled in the eighth.

CLOUDBURST

Weather Halts Colonial Meet

FORT WORTH, Tex. (AP)—A cloudburst forced postponement of the second round of the $75,000 Colonial Invitation Golf Tournament Friday before most of the players venture on the course.

South African Gary Player, whose 68 gave him a one shot lead over the first round, was not on the course at the time.

Tournament officials scheduled a 36-hole test today, with the Sunday 18-hole finale unchanged.

The forecast today calls for cloudy skies with the possibility of showers during the afternoon. The course already was soggy from rain earlier in the week.

Play was cancelled moments after Ben Hogan, a contender with a two-over-par 70, teed off on the first hole. Hogan was paired with defending champion Julian Boros,who blew to a first round 77, and Ken Venturi, a 74 shooter.

Art Wall, whose 71 Thursday put him among the leaders, had dipped two under par through four holes when play was stopped. Twenty-seven of the 72-player field were on the course.

Tommy Jacobs, the only contestant other than Player to break par in the first round, tailed the leader by one stroke going into he second and third rounds.

Bunched at 70 were Gay Brewer, Ray Floyd, Al Besselink and Jerry Edwards, the latter a young Fort Worth player who had practically grown up on the Cloonial course.

Red Sox Take 9-3 Decision From Senators

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Boston Red Sox took advantage of Washington fielding lapses, poured over seven runs in the seventh inning Friday night and defeated the Senators 9-3.

Eddie Bressoud's line single to center rove in the tie-breaking runs after the Senators permitted pinch hitter Gary Geiger's pop fly to fall safely in short right for a base hit. Four of the runs that followed were unearned, coming after an error by shortstop Ed Brinkman.

Minden Wins State AA Championship

RUSTON — Minden won only one first place at Louisiana Tech in the state class AA track and field meet Friday afternoon but piled up enough points to edge Northside of Lafayette and its crack relay teams which broke three records in their two-team battle for the state championship.

Minden accumulated 43 points to 38 for runnerup Northside of Lafayette while Neville of Monroe was a close third with 35 points and Lee of Baton Rouge was fourth with 32.

The Crimson Tide placed in all three relays, getting second in the 880 and third in both the 440 and mile relays. Mike Brewer got Minden's only first place in the javelin with a throw of 194-4.

Five records fell in the AA state meet — all three relays to the Northside onslaught and in the high jump where Jack McDougal of Reserve went 6-2 and in the pole vault where Wayne Meaux of Abbeville cleared 13-1.

Northside collected four first places and standout Willis Delhomme had a hand in all four. Besides running in all three relays, he also won the 440-yard dash in 48.9.

Malcolm Gott of Crowley was a double winner, winning the 100-yard dash in 10.1 and the 220 dash in 21.7. Harold Stephens of Lee High got first in the low hurdles and broad jump and was second in the broad jump to Jesse Chelette of Broadmoor.

Northside's relay teams had marks of 42.8 in the 440, 1:29.1 in the 880 and 3:23.2 in the mile.

Times in the 100 and 220 dashes were affected by the 15-18 mile per hour wind the sprinters were facing.

The point totals, Minden 43, Northside of Lafayette 38, Neville of Monroe 35, Lee of Baton Rouge 32, Broadmoor of Baton Rouge 18, DeRidder 17, Reserve 17, Ruston 16, Crowley 13, North Caddo 9, Abbeville 8, Haynesville 8, Baker 7, Cathedral of Lafayette 6, Jennings 5, Oakdale 5, Natchitoches 5, Jena 5, Denham Springs 3, Plaquemine 3, S. Bolton Ends Byrd's AAA Cinder Rule

BATON ROUGE (Special) — Byrd High's bid for another triple-A high school track crown was foiled here Friday when three district 2-AAA teams, Bolton, Lafayette, and New Iberia, led the defending champions in team scoring.

Bolton, claiming it's first state track title, won with 40½ points while Lafayette had 35½ and New Iberia, 29. Then came Byrd with 26 followed by East Jefferson with 19.

Farther down the line in ties for tenth and 13th places, respectively, were Ouachita with 13 and West Monroe with 9 points.

Two triple-A records, including the composite mark for the mile relay, were bettered and 440-yard three-A dash standard was tied.

Lafayette posted a new composite mark when it's mile relay team stepped a 3-22.9. The old record was 3-23.4 and was set by Byrd in 1959.

New Iberia's Bobby Keasler, who also won the half-mile, set a new mile mark of 4-30.0 and Lafayette's Maurice Le Blanc, who later anchored the mile-relay victory equalled the 440 time of :49.1 established in 1958 by Byrd's Bo Campbell.

Ouachita's 13 points were built on an 880-relay triumph and a third place by Ken Slusher in the 220. Slusher also started the 880 unit to a 1:30.6 clocking.

Other members of the Lion's winning team were Don Powell and Jerry and Perry Eppinette.

West Monroe's Steve West and Chuck Crawford were second in the low hurdles and discus, respectively, while Van Nolan finished in three-way tie for fourth and fifth in the pole vault.

Byrd, which had copped the triple-A title the last two springs on eight of the last 10 meets, didn't have a single winner. Outside of Ouachita's win in the relay, the only 1-AAA victor was Bossier City's Joe Redding who pushed the shot, 56'11''.

Mantle Homer Kicks Off Rout

CLEVELAND (AP) — Mickey Mantle crashed a three-run first inning homer and Tony Kubek had three hits Friday night, leading the New York Yankees to a 10-3 conquest of the Cleveland Indians.

Lanky Ralph Terry was breezing along on a two-hit shutout until he ran into his old nemesis — the home run ball — in the sixth inning. Bob Chance cracked a pinch-hit homer and Leon Wagner added a two-run shot in the ninth for all the Indians runs.

Terry finished with a five-hitter and his first victory of the season.

The Yanks gave Terry plenty of hitting support. Mantle's opposite field drive over the right field fence, his third of the season, followed a Kubek single and a double by Hector Lopez.

The defending American League champions, who have now won four of their last five, added two more in the second and wrapped it up with a five-run ninth inning burst.

Kubek doubled in one Yankee run in the second and Don McMahon, second of five Indian pitchers, wild pitched another home.

In the ninth, Elston Howard rapped a bases-loaded double for three runs, Joe Pepitone tripled in another and Clete Boyer singled in the final run.

UNIVERSITY HIGH WINS

Five Records Broken In A State Meet Here

By KEITH PRINCE
World Sports Writer

Five records were broken and one tied Friday afternoon at the Class A state track meet held at Northeast State's Brown Stadium as University High of Baton Rouge swept to the title with 48½ points. University was second to Mansfield in last year's meet.

Tallulah grabbed second place on the blistering afternoon with 36½ points, Amite copped third with 33, Port Allen had 30, and DeQuincy finished with 25½ to round out the top five.

Pole vaulter Dale Davis of DeQuincy grabbed the spotlight in the meet's last event when he sailed over the bar at 13-1 to break his own record of 12-0 set last year.

In the other new mark for a field event, AIC of Opelousas strongman Cecil Waters bettered his own javelin mark of 183-1½ when he hurled the spar 194 feet.

Jeff Rowdon, of Amite, claimed the other individual meet record with a strong 1:59 half mile, breaking the 2:00.7 mark set in 1961 by Jimmy Robicheaux of Raceland.

University High's 880 yard relay team knocked one tenth of a second off its own record with a 1:31.7 when it was pushed to the wire by the Tallulah Trojans who were only one-tenth of a second slower.

However, University couldn't cope with the Trojans in the meet's last running event, the mile-relay, when Tallulah ran off from everybody to set a new class A record of 3:27.5. The Tallulah team of Kenny Smith, Bill Zigler, Ronald Hancock and Bill Gilfoil lowered the old mark of University High's more than four full seconds. University ran a 3:31.7 in 1961.

Although he didn't break any records, Port Allen's Wayne Blanchard was possibly the meet's outstanding performer. The talented trackster did tie one meet mark with his 15 flat in the 120 yard high hurdles, plus winning the low hurdle with a 20.5 time, finishing third in the 220 yard dash and anchoring Port Allen's winning 440 yard relay team.

As a real indication of what the slender sensation did one needs to look only as far as the Port Allen score of 30 points. Blanchard figured in 23 of them.

Last Place Mets Nudge Cards, 5-4

NEW YORK (AP)—A single by pinch-hitter Joe Christopher scored George Altman from second base in the ninth inning Friday night and gave the New York Mets a 5-4 victory over the St. Louis Cardinals. The first time this season the last place Mets have won two straight.

The Cards had tied the score in the eighth on a three-run homer by pinch-hitter Carl Warwick.

Altman led off in the ninth for the Mets with a single off relief pitcher Bobby Shantz's glove. He was sacrificed to second.

Pirates Edged By Braves, 2-1 On Menke's Hit

PITTSBURGH (AP) — Tony Cloninger's six-hit pitching and a key double by Dennis Menke led the Milwaukee Braves to a 2-1 victory over the Pittsburgh Pirates Friday night.

Menke, who became the Braves' No. 1 shortstop early Friday when Roy McMillan was traded to the New York Mets, put Milwaukee ahead 2-1 with a run-scoring double off Joe Gibbon in the fourth inning. The hit scored Frank Bolling, who singled and took second on a wild pitch.

Chisox In 1st With Victory Over Angels

LOS ANGELES (AP)—Pitcher Juan Pizarro and Ron Hansen slugged homers Friday night as the Chicago White Sox defeated the Los Angeles Angels 3-1 and took over the American League lead.

The White Sox, winning for the 11th time in their last 13 games, pulled one-half game ahead of the Cleveland Indians, who were beaten by New York.

Hansen scored Chicago's first run after walking and produced what turned out to be the deciding run with his third homer of the season.

ALCOHOL STUDIES

Youth Panel Ends Three-Day Institute

The responsibilities of the medical profession and the clergy to the alcoholic and his problem were stressed in the closing sessions Friday of the Monroe Institute of Alcohol Studies held at the Virginia Hotel.

The three-day meet wound up activities Friday with a youth panel at 2 p.m., moderated by Mac Ward. Friday morning's program included an address by Dr. R. L. Raleigh, medical director of Texas Eastman Company, Longview, Tex., and specialized workshops on the place of industry, community services and the clergy in the alcoholic problems.

A group of 50 to 60 Northeast Louisiana teenagers aimed questions at the youth panel in the big issue centering around the alcholic parent's inability to quit drinking even though they realize it hurts both themselves and their children.

Panel members explained that when the problem had gone this far, it was beyond the alcoholic's control and he or she needed outside help. One panelist, a member of Alcoholics Anonymous, pointed out that the true alcoholic can not be cured, but the alcoholism addiction can be "arrested." In many instances, it was pointed out, there are underlying causes of the alcoholism which must be treated.

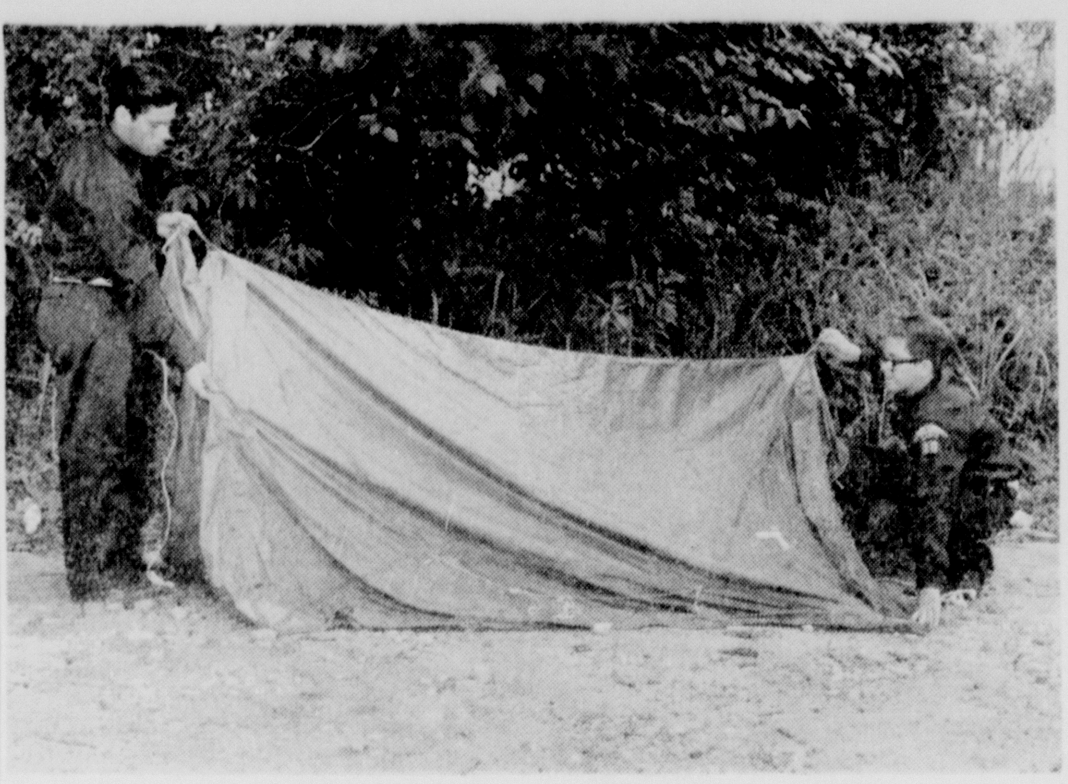
However, these causes cannot be treated until the alcoholism is "arrested."

The indifference of many members of the medical profession towards the alcoholic was scored by medical members present at the institute. Many doctors feel that the alcoholic should be left to "sweat" out his drinking problems alone when he begins to withdraw, without medical treatment. Members of the medical profession said this is both "unethical professionally," and "dangerous medically."

Both the responsibility of the clergy and the medical profession came under fire at the afternoon session. Members of the panel included Ward; Al Mazur, juvenile officer, Caddo Parish, Shreveport; Hoyle Houser, director of Alcohol Rehabilitation, Arkansas; Father Alan King, Institute chairman; and two members of AA. Dr. Raleigh and Dr. Howard J. Clinebell Jr., associate professor of Pastoral counseling at the School of Theology, Claremont, Calif., were slated to have been panel members but had to leave to catch a plane. They prefaced the panel opening with remarks and answered several questions before leaving. Father King sat on the panel in their absence.

In the morning session, Dr. Raleigh said "no other group has such power to motivate an alcoholic to do something about his problem as his employers."

He outlined the basis of an Industrial Alcohol Program to representatives at the session, explaining that the "worst thing that can be done for a person with this disease is to be overly tolerant of his alcoholism rather than encouraging him to face the reality of the situation."



OUACHITA VALLEY COUNCIL Boy Scouts from 15 area parishes are presenting their annual "big show," the Adventure-Rama, on the fairgrounds in West Monroe from 2 until 8 p.m. today. Nearly 100 exhibits will be on public display, in addition to various special activities. Practicing their tent-pitching Friday in anticipation of the event were, left and right, Ronald and Donald Allen. The youngsters are twins and both are members of West Monroe Explorer Post 10. ST. FRANCIS EXPANSION

Hospital Addition Dedication Sunday

The new $4-million addition to St. Francis hospital will be formally dedicated and blessed Sunday at 2 p.m. with Bishop Charles P. Greco, of the Alexandria Diocese, officiating.

Dr. Henson S. Coon, new president of the Louisiana Medical Society, will deliver the dedication address which will be followed by an inspection of the building by medical, civic, religious and governmental leaders. The new facilities include a two-story addition in the front and a five-story addition and boiler room in the back. Dr. Henry E. Guerriero will act as master of cermonies.

Presentation of the new building will be made by R. L. Barrett, representing architects Ellerbe and Company, and Stuart C. Pugh, vice president of J. A. Jones Construction Company, New Orleans, Mother Marie Finbarr is administrator of the hospital, and James W. Hice is assistant administrator.

The new addition will boost the hospital's adult bed capacity from 250 to 340, in addition to 61 pediatric beds. Many new units of modern equipment have been installed. The new x-ray department includes a $60,000 cobalt therapy unit. There are new surgical suites, and a broad variety of facilities, offices and rooms.

Among those scheduled to take part in inspection of the new facilities following dedication are Monroe Mayor W. L. Howard, West Monroe Mayor pro-tem A. E. Duncan, outgoing Rep. Mike John Jr., Rep. Lawrence Gibbs, James A. Noe; L. B. Pettit, representing the Ouachita Parish Police Jury; Charles R. Gage, executive director of the Louisiana Hospital Association, representing Sister Mary Madeleine Sophie, association president; Msgr. J. C. Marsh, dean of Monroe Catholic Deanery; the Rev. Charles Vorkoper, president of the Monroe Ministerial Alliance; Rabbi Martin I. Silverman, B'nai Israel congregation; the Rev. W. Alan King, president of West Monroe Ministerial Alliance; Dr. Roy A. Kelly, president of the Ouachita Parish Medical Society; Murray Hudson, hospital advisory board; Dr. Fred W. Sartor, representing the hospital staff, and Bishop Greco.

St. Francis Hospital was opened in 1913, and the original building was replaced by a modern plant dedicated in February, 1955.

Sen. Kennedy To Lead State's Demo Delegates

BOSTON (AP)—Sen. Edward M. Kennedy is to be chairman of the Massachusetts delegation to the Democratic National Convention in August.

The position had been offered to Speaker of the House John W. McCormack, who turned it down.

McCormack confided to friends that he doesn't want to be chairman of the convention sessions at Atlantic City, N.J., either. He had been mentioned for that post.

McCormack told friends that he wanted to take it easy at this convention. McCormack was the chairman of the Massachusetts delegation at Los Angeles in 1960 when John F. Ken-

The World for WOMEN

MRS. BETTY SHADDIX, right, president of the Ouachita Parish Association of Medical Assistants, presents a check to St. Francis Hospital administrator, Mother Finbarr, to furnish a room in the new hospital addition. Looking on, during the presentation made at the dinner meeting Wednesday evening at the Frances Hotel, is Mrs. Claudia Pittman, treasurer of the local organization.

Medical Assistants Give Check For Hospital Wing

The recent civic project of the Ouachita Parish Association of Medical Assistants was brought to a climax at the dinner meeting on Wednesday night, May 6th, when St. Francis Hospital administrator, Mother Finbarr, was presented a check to furnish a room in the new hospital addition. Presentation of the donation was made by Mrs. Betty Shaddix, president of the local organization.

A May Day motif was carried out in the Gold Room of the Frances Hotel and the officers' table was decorated with an arrangement of spring flowers centered with a miniature maypole, from which fell streamers of variegated ribbon.

Welcomed as guests were Mother Finbarr, Sister Brennan, Mrs. Shirley Gewin and Miss Glenda Wilhite. Due to a last minute hospital emergency, the scheduled speaker, a local surgeon, could not be present.

Following the business session, Mrs. Shaddix gave a report of her attendance at the 9th Annual Southeastern Regional Conference of the American Medical Association on Voluntary Health Insurance and Prepayment Plan held in Atlanta, Georgia during the weekend of April 18th. As president of the Louisiana state organization, Mrs. Shaddix was invited by A.M.A. to participate, and her invitation was issued through Mrs. Judy Coleman of Dallas, Texas, national president of the medical assistants' organization. The conference is for the purpose of hospital administrators, representatives of insurance companies, doctors, and various lay people coming together to study the problems of hospital admissions for performance of tests that could well be carried out on an out-patient basis. It was voted to continue having such annual conferences until some extended insurance coverage can be made available.

Members present were Mrs. Dale Morgan, Mrs. Ruth Land, Mrs. Elizabeth Brown, Mrs. Janice Carter, Mrs. Pris Williams, Mrs. Maudie Fant, Mrs. Floy St. John, Mrs. K. Simrall, Mrs. Claudia Pittman, Mrs. Bobbie Grimsley, Mrs. Fleta Latham, Mrs. Janice Cooper, Mrs. Margaret Anzalome, Mrs. Mary Louise Williams, Miss Sally Peptone and Mrs. Shaddix.

UNSTUFFED TURKEY

If you are roasting that turkey without stuffing (for a buffet party) it's a good idea to serve hot buttered cornbread with the bird and whatever trimmings you're setting forth.

CANNED FOODS

Canned foods should be stored in a clean dry place. Don't put them in a cupboard that is near a radiator or a steam pipe.

Mrs. Smith Entertains For Visitor

Mrs. Joe F. Smith entertained last Wednesday afternoon with an informal party at her home on North Eighth Street in West Monroe, complimentary to Mrs. Charles Wilkins, who is visiting in the Twin Cities.

Mrs. Wilkins of Killeen, Texas, and her two daughters are guests in the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Herschel Ace Gentry Sr. on Country Club Drive.

An old fashioned bouquet formed the focal point in the living room of the Smith home for the conversational hour, while arrangements of red roses were seen at vantage points.

A salad course and other party foods were served to the assembled guests.

Invited to share the occasion with the honoree and her hostess were Mrs. Frank D. Pettit, Mrs. Herschel A. Gentry Sr., Mrs. Herschel A. Gentry Jr., Mrs. Fred Huenefeld Jr., Mrs. Travis Ellis, Mrs. D. F. Dennis, Mrs. R. P. McKay, Mrs. Frances Golson Wright, Mrs M. Franklyn and Mrs. Waymon Brown.

Tallulah Girl Complimented At Luncheon

Miss Elizabeth Ann Smith, a graduating senior at Tallulah High School was complimented by her cousin, Mrs. G. M. Fuller, who entertained with a noon luncheon at her home on Saturday.

A color theme of pink and white prevailed throughout the reception rooms where arrangements of roses in shades of pink were placed at vantage points.

Corsages of peonies fashioned with pink tulle and ribbons were presented to the guests on arrival. Favors of stationery and cosmetic cases wrapped in white tissue and tied with pink ribbons marked the places for the girls.

Lunch was served buffet style from a table centered with an horizontal arrangement of pink floribunda roses in a crystal hurricane lamp. Centering the individual tables were bouquets of sweetheart roses. Mrs. Fuller was assisted in the serving by Mrs. S. C. Smith, Mrs. Ann Porter and Mrs. Erle Read, who received boudoir brushes.

Guests invited for the event with the honoree, were Miss Lillian Loe, Miss Cindy Graves, Miss Glenna Sevier, Miss Syble Warner, Miss Delores Brown, Miss Jennifer Colvin, Miss Linda Harvey, Miss Linda King, Miss Judy McClure, Miss Yvonne Metcalf, Miss Donna Nettles, Miss Melonie Osborne, Miss La Wanna Shows, Miss Sandra Taylor, Miss Marynell Towne, Miss Claudia Brady, Miss Susie Wixson, Miss Mary Woodyear, Miss Norma Coltharp, Mr. and Mrs. S. C. Smith, Mrs. Ann Porter, Mrs. Erle Read, G. M. Fuller, and Mrs. J. G. Robertson of Ferriday.

DEAR ABBY

Mothers Appreciate The Thought And Gift

By Abigail Van Buren

DEAR ABBY: My mother gave me her annual warning speech again this year prior to Mother's Day. It always starts out, "Please don't buy me anything. There's nothing I need." Abby, this hurts me. I KNOW my mother doesn't "need" anything, but it takes the pleasure out of it for me when she is so ungracious as to reject my gift before she even gets it. Please put a word or two in your column letting mothers know that their children enjoy buying Mother's Day gifts, and they should not be discouraged from doing so.

LOVES TO GIVE

DEAR LOVES: Most mothers are fearful that their children will deny themselves something in order to buy a Mother's Day gift. An original poem or letter doesn't cost anything, and is the most cherished of all gifts. When I was a child, my own mother used to say, "Don't buy me anything. I have everything I need." So I would write little poems and verses telling her how much I appreciated her. Only after she passed away did I realize how much they meant to her. She had saved every one.

DEAR ABBY: Maybe I'm wrong, but I always thought that Mother's Day was a day to remember one's OWN mother. I am my husband's sweetheart, companion, partner and lover but, by Jove, I am NOT his mother! I hope that Bill and I never start calling each other "Mother" and "Dad" like some couples we know. And we certainly don't intend to exchange gifts on "Mother's Day" and "Father's Day."

MY MOTHER'S DAUGHER

Dear Readers: In my files is this letter, written on Mother's Day by a young prisoner who was awaiting execution in San Quentin prison:

"A crime was committed. There was an arrest. And a boy was thrown into a cell. The crime was great, the boy was young and the cell was dark. Life seemed at an end, and hell became a living thing.

"Then one day, as the boy sat weeping, he looked up to see his mother. She was smiling. She opened her arms and said, "My son, did you think I would not come to you?' Suddenly the boy forgot his terror and found comfort in the magic circle of his mother's arms.

"Through the dark that shrouded the hill of Calvary, a voice cried, 'Son, behold thy mother!' And Mary knelt at the foot of the cross.

"For every son who crucifies himself on pillars of hate, weakness and greed, there at the foot of the cross you will find his mother. Your mother and mine. God bless them, here and beyond. They have known so much pain."

Get it off your chest. For a personal, unpublished reply, write to ABBY, in care of News Star. Enclose a stamped, self-addressed envelope.

Hate to write letters? Send one dollar to ABBY, for Abby's new booklet, "HOW TO WRITE LETTERS FOR ALL OCCASIONS."

Miss Bradford Speaker For Tallulah DAR

Miss Mathilde Bradford of Baton Rouge was the guest speaker at a meeting of Tallulah Chapter, Daughters of the American Revolution, on Saturday. She gave an illustrated talk on her trip to Europe and North Africa, showing colored slides of the countries visited.

Mrs. Travis McNeel presided and led the opening ritual. Mrs. John Carpenter announced that she is donating her copies of the D. A. R. Magazine to the parish library. The group voted to send a card of sympathy to Mrs. Douglas McArthur, a member of the organization. Mrs. H. P. Warden presented National Defense News which was based on J. Edgar Hoover's report to Congress.

Preceding the session the hostess, Mrs. McNeel served cake and coffee to Mrs. Jack Millikin, Miss Bradford, Mrs. Frank Thomas, Mrs. John Carpenter, Mrs. Alice Ware, Mrs. Albert Sevier, Mrs. H. P. Warden, Mrs. W. W. Ziegler, Mrs. J. G. Wyly Jr., Mrs. James Federick, Mrs. E. E. Warrick and Mrs. Susan Linden.

LEARNING ABOUT THE WEST

RENO (AP) — Apparently there aren't enough village blacksmiths to go around these days.

The University of Nevada and the agriculture extension service announced they are sponsoring a short course in horse shoeing at several Nevada cities and towns. The course includes instruction in use of the forge and how to handle kicking horses.

EASY GOING. Looks-like-linen skims into an easy going silhouette that slightly notes a natural waistline. Seaming gives this skimmer its shape, accented with welt stitching and flap pockets on an "A" shape skirt. It's a favorite Bobbie Brooks' 'little nothing' dress that simply goes everywhere. Comes in a bouquet of bright spring colors too.

Couple Honored At Open House

Mrs. William Allen Futch entertained with an open house at her home in Farmerville last Saturday evening from 7 to 9, honoring her son, Dr. Marion Brantley Futch and his bride, the former Miss Margaret Ann Stine of New Orleans.

The honoree wore a blue silk sheath with white accessories, accented by a gift corsage of gold cymbidium orchids.

A fan shaped arrangement of white gladioli, yellow Dutch iris, white chrysanthemums and greenery was used on the mantel. A silver and crystal epergne filled with yellow and white iris and chrysanthemums in a pyramid arrangement centered the refreshment table, which was overlaid with a white embroidered cloth over yellow. Alternating at the silver punch bowl were Mrs. Arthur Washam, Mrs. Lynn Pomeroy Sr. and Mrs. Gerald Williamson. The guest book resting on a table lighted by a memory candle garlanded by English ivy and yellow roses. Guests calling between the appointed hours were registered by Miss Marine Washam.

Assisting with other courtesies were Mrs. Richard Bass, Mrs. J. G. Elliott and Mrs. Edward Everett Jr.

HUMBLE START

NEW YORK (AP) — Columbia University's School of Engineering and Applied Science, which will celebrate its 100th anniversary Nov. 15, 1964, started life in the cellar rooms of a former deaf and dumb asylum on Columbia's old 49th street campus. It spent its second academic year in a former broom factory.

Delta Beta Sigma Holds Installation Banquet

Miss Donna Spargo was mistress of ceremonies for the annual Delta Beta Sigma banquet held last Saturday evening at the Virginia Hotel Roof. Highlight of the festive occasion for the high school sorority was the installation of officers to serve for the coming school year.

Paper flowers bearing the names of outgoing and incoming officers formed the focal decor for the room, while miniature chrysanthemums and place cards marked the settings at the banquet tables, which were centered the length with English ivy.

Preceding dinner, the invocation was presented by outgoing chaplain, Marcia Frost. An orchid was presented to outgoing president, Jan Touchstone by the outgoing vice-president, Dana Mouk.

Special awards were presented to Sandy Ussery as outstanding chapter member of 1964 as well as outstanding senior member; Pat Lolley, outstanding junior member; Donna Spargo, outstanding sophomore member and Betty Jo Spargo, outstanding freshmen member.

After being installed by Jan Touchstone, the new president, Pat Lolley, installed the remaining officers, sponsors and parents: Other officers are Kay Joyce, vice-president; Alice Haynes, recording secretary; Jana Rorex, corrresponding secretary; Jan Spurlock, treasurer; Gale Dominques, parliamentarian; Lynn Allen, sentinel; Cheryl Turnipseed, charity chairman; Patricia Trudnak, reporter; Sandra Hudson, custodian; Ann Heard, historian; Cathy Sherman, sergeant-at-arms; Margaret Rea, chaplain; Donna Sprago, social chairman; Sara and Carolyn Cascio, songleaders; Donna King, Susan Allen, Mary Einhorn, pledge advisors.

Mother sponsors installed were Mrs. J. JJ. Joyce, Mrs. W. G. Haynes Jr., Mrs. George Rorex, Mrs. R. M Drew and Mrs. W. T. Spurlock. Father sponsors are Mr. Joyce, Mr. Haynes, Mr. Spurlock, Don Spargo and Dick Bell. Sheriff Bailey Grant is the group's honorary father sponsor.

Student sponsors installed during the banquet are Lester Owens, representing Phi Kappa; Chip Thompson, Delta Sigma; J. Dodd Brooks, non-fraternity; Bill Dunn, D.B.S. Boyfriend, and Johnny Clay, ideal brother.

Lazy Teenagers Devise Smart Ideas On Foods

By HELOISE CRUSE

Dear Heloise:

I am a fifteen-year-old teen ager and like all teenagers I am kind of lazy, so thought that I should pass this on.

My friends and I all like hot dogs and hamburgers and whether it's a snack after a date, a picnic, or just an ordinary meal, we all find it depressing to say and hear, "Pass me the catsup", "pass me the mustard", etc.

Here's what we do now:

We chop pickles and put them in a jar (one could use pickle relish) add some catsup, mustard and chopped onions. We mix this all up and use a long handle spoon to spoon the mixture on whatever we are eating. This sure beats adding all these ingredients one by one and it goes over with a bang among our gang.

We think it would be much easier for the little kids to "goop" their own hamburgers and hot dogs this way, too.

Lazy Teen Agers Club

Dear Heloise:

To check the lights on your car, park in a shopping center facing a large plate glass window (using this plate glass window as a mirror).

Turn on your turn signals, your parking lights, your head lights, then press the dimmer switch to see if all are working . . . on this glass.

Turn the car around and back in and you can check the rear lights in the same manner. Try your turn signals, break lights, and tail lights and don't forget the license plate lights.

Johnny L. Cavender

Dear Heloise:

Please let me caution the ladies never make or use an apron of inflammable material.

Every year many women are horribly disfigured because their aprons or dressing gown sleeves catch fire and many die from burns received when loose fitting clothes are set on fire.

Never wear loose fitting clothing while working in the kitchen. It's best to wear short-sleeved dresses.

Never wear an apron made of material that burns readily no matter how pretty, because it might cost your life.

Reader

Dear Heloise:

Many restaurants use paraffin (canning type) on their waffle irons. . .

When the iron is hot, quickly pass the wax over both surfaces, then pour in your batter. Discard the first waffle.

Make sure that the waffle is fully cooked before removing it. An early removal of the waffle is sometimes the cause of its splitting.

Mrs. J.P.S.

How true! I checked it. And who would have thought paraffin could be put on a waffle iron?

I also advocate that if you get too much paraffin on your waffle iron, that you cook a couple slices of bread that has been spread on both sides with UNSALTED shortening before pouring in your first bit of batter.

Heloise

Dear Heloise:

I had a cedar chest which had entirely lost it's fragrance. I bought some oil of cedar at my drug store, put some on a rag and rubbed the inside of the top of the lid. This restored the cedar fragrance. Be sure not to use too much and do keep the chest closed.

Charlene

Gals, put oil of cedar only on the lid of your cedar chests. Remember it's OIL. Don't damage your linens, etc.

Heloise

Dear Heloise:

For the finicky child or adult: We liquidize carrots in our blender and serve about a tablespoon of this liquid in a glass of orange juice!

Also several tablespoonfuls are put, unnoticed, into cooked cereals, pancake, and waffle mix!

National Music Week Observed By Music Guild

Members of the Music Guild of Monroe observed National Music Week, May 6 by having as guests at their regular monthly meeting, winners of the Music Guild Awards.

At the meeting, held in Biedenharn Hall on the Northeast Louisiana State College campus, members of the Delta Omicron National Music Fraternity performed selections by American composers. Miss Kitty Isaacson played "Enchantment" by Howard Hansen; Miss Janet Noland sang "If God Left Only You" by John Dinsmore, accompanied by Miss Lynda Callender and Miss Linda Clement played "Prelude in Dance" by Paul Creston.

High school award winners, who performed for the club, were Miss Gayle Smith, Neville, who sang "Mi Chianamo Mimi" from "La Bohemme" by Puccini, accompanied by her father, Dr. Wilford Smith, and Miss Lynda Callender, Ouachita, "Prelude No. 2", by George Gershwin.

A crystal vase was presented to the outgoing president, Mrs. Allen Colon by the Guild.

Following the program and business, a reception was held for members and guests with Mrs. Davis Bingham, Mrs. Allen Coon, Mrs. Bill Reed and Mrs. Robert Davis as hostesses. An arrangement of roses furnished by Mrs. J. Norman Coon Sr. centered the refreshment table.

Guests present for the meeting were Miss Isaacson, Miss Noland, Miss Smith, Miss Clement, Miss Callender, Mrs. Carson Dopson, Mrs. Ann Eubanks, Miss Eloise Stanhope, Mrs. Gene Williams and Mrs. W. D. Albritton.

Members present were Mrs. Ellis Bairnsfather, Mrs. Davis Bingham, Mrs. Allen Coon, Mrs. J. Norman Coon Sr., Mrs. R. W. Cretney, Mrs. Robert Davis, Mrs. Walter Ernst, Mrs. N. W. Hickman, Mrs. J. Eddie Hislop, Mrs. Bill Hoover, Mrs. W. C. Hopkins, Mrs. Donald Logan, Mrs. Leon Noland Jr., Mrs. T. Earl Ogg, Mrs. C. W. Pardue, Mrs. Bill Reed and Mrs. Marvin Shipp.

RECITAL

On Sunday afternoon, the Music Guild presented pianist Joseph Monroe in a recital at Biedenharn Hall. Mrs. Allen Coon president of the Guild, and Mrs. Ellis Bairnsfather, chairman of the recital committee, were in charge of arrangements and the reception that followed.

Mr. Monroe's selections included Four Works by Jenkins, Six Etudes by Chopin, "Rondo, F. Major" by Mozart, "Sonata, Op. 54" by Beethoven, "Jeux d'eau" by Ravel, "LaCathedrale Engloutie" by Debussy, "Toccata" by Debussy and "Mephisto Waltz" by Liszt.

FORTHCOMING MARRIAGE of Miss Charlene Etue and David F. Redden, son of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Redden of Farmerville, is announced by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Etue of Farmerville. The wedding will take place Saturday, May 10 at 8 p.m. in the home of the bride's aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Miller, Farmerville.

Prenuptial Shower Names Becky York As Honoree

A miscellaneous bridal shower last Sunday afternoon was the compliment of a group of hostesses for Miss Becky York, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. G. R. York of Fairbanks and bride-elect of Jimmy Roach of New Orleans. Miss York and Mr. Roach, son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Roach of Sterlington, will be married on June 13 at St. Andrews Methodist Church in Sterlington.

Hostesses for the prenuptial courtesy were Mrs. T. V. Rainer Jr., Miss Reata Davidson, Miss Mary Duchesne and Miss Sandy Calloway, who entertained in the Rainer home on North Third Street in Monroe.

Mrs. York and Mrs. Roach, mothers of the engaged couple, received with the honoree and Mrs. Rainer. The bride - elect wore a dress of pink silk linen with pink patent accessories and an orchid corsage.

Presiding at the guest book was Miss Sandy Calloway, while Miss Davidson and Miss Duchesne served and poured at the refreshment table, which was centered with an arrangement of roses in shades of pink and overlaid with a cloth of pink and white lace.

Focal point on the gift table were bride and groom figurines nestled in puffs of net flanked by pink candles.

Approximately 100 guests called during the afternoon hours of 3 and 5 p.m.

MR. AND MRS. HILL HUCKABAY left for Dallas this morning to meet their daughter-in-law, Mrs. Gary Huckabay and two month old grandson, Gary Jr. arriving by plane for Denver, Colorado. Upon their return, Mrs. Huckabay and son will be in Monroe for an extended visit with the senior Huckabays and her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Peters.

Morning Party Given At Lake Providence

As a compliment to Mrs. J. P. Davis on her wedding anniversary a trio of hostesses entertained at White's Restaurant in Lake Providence on Saturday morning. Hostesses were Mrs. Kiley Mangum, Mrs. H. P. DuBose and Mrs. Maude Van Fossen. The honoree wore a silk floral print and an orchid corsage.

The refreshment table held an arrangement of mixed spring flowers, and on the piano were white and pink peonies.

The hostess served coffee and cake to Mrs. W. D. Godwin, Miss Eunyce Howard, Mrs. R. K. Howard, Mrs. W. H. Maben, Mrs. Grady Wyly, Mrs. T. J. Slagle, Mrs. James Beard, Mrs. John Fleming, Mrs. W. F. Bonner Sr., Mrs. E. E. Nelson, Mrs. T. G. Biggs, Mrs. Eugene Proctor, Mrs. Adron Williams, Mrs. A. J. Wyly, Mrs. C. R. Brown and Mrs. W. P. Rushing.

Mrs. Don Odom Hostess For Garden Meeting

The Charmingdale Garden Club met at the home of Mrs. Don Odom on Tuesday, May 5. Mrs. Grady McQuistan presided over the meeting. All of the club members present worked on assembling the new yearbook, and plans were made for the flower show, to be held in June.

Yard-of-the-month plaque was given to Mrs. Grady McQuistan.

Mrs. Odom served refreshments to the following: Mrs. Harley Loy, Mrs. Wayne Wible, Mrs. Ray Adcock, Mrs. Grady McQuistan, and Mrs. John McTurner.

Disposable Towels Ease Polishing

On furniture polishing day do you go rummaging through the rag box in the closet — only to find you're fresh out of clean cloths?

Frequently the problem is solved by sacrificing a dish cloth to the cause — or by simply postponing the job. Neither is necessary now that paper towels have been made softer and lint-free.

The new disposable towels are perfect for polishing furniture or doing any job that calls for a clean, soft cloth. They're strong enough to last through brisk buffing. Best of all, they don't contribute to the confusion of the rag box.

AUTOMATED GAS STATION

CALVERT CITY, Ky. (AP) — One of the few fully automated gas stations in the world operates seven days a week in this industrial center.

It furnishes propane gas at wholesale prices to many of the chemical plants.

Each tractor-trailer driver carries a small, perforated card which is used to trigger the pump and to mark the charges on the bill.

In 15 minutes, the driver can have his tank loaded with 9,000 gallons of propane.

Weekend Parties Honor Miss Lee In Winnsboro

Winnsboro hostesses entertained last Saturday and Sunday afternoons complimentary to Miss Mary Eleanor Lee, whose marriage to Jimmy H. Durr Jr. will be solemized on June 3 at the First Methodist Church. Parents of the couple are Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Edgar Lee Jr. and Mr. and Mrs. Jimmie H. Durr Sr., all of Winnsboro.

The home of Mrs. Nick Poulas was the scene for a coffee hour Sunday afternoon at 3 p.m. honoring Miss Lee, with Mrs. Poulas, Mrs. Katherine Funderburk, Mrs. Robert Anderson and Mrs. Jim LaCoste as co-hostesses.

Miss Caliope Poulas received guests at the door, while Miss Lee, attired in a blue linen dress and a gift corsage of white carnations, received in the living room.

A novel word game added to the occasion, and Miss Lee, as winner, was presented an apron embroidered with the initials, "M.E.D." She was also presented with a gift of silver by her hostesses.

An arrangement of pink radiant roses centered the dining table, where Mrs. Anderson served coffee from the silver service, assisted by Mrs. LaCoste.

Those invited to share the occasion with Miss Lee were Mrs. S. E. Lee Jr., Mrs. J. R. Durr, Mrs. S. E. Lee Sr., Mrs. F. O. Brackett, Mrs. B. I. Berry, Mrs. T. W. Stodghill Jr., Mrs. Harriet Etheridge, Mrs. Jack Humphries, Mrs. Finis Howard, Mrs. Lula Shipp, Misses Jane Lee, Beth Williamson, Charlotte Luno, Dewanna Bryant, Margaret Mays, and Kathlyn Charpentier of Houma.

SATURDAY TEA

A tea and shower was the courtesy extended for Miss Lee on Saturday afternoon in the home of Mrs. James D. Mays in Winnsboro. Hostesses for the occasion were Mrs. J. R. Kiper Jr., Mrs. Robert Lowe, Mrs. Nolan C. Moore, Miss Mittie Polk, Mrs. C. L. Richardson, Mrs. W. E. Robinson and Mrs. Edwin D. Walter.

Mrs. Mays received at the door and forming the receiving line were Miss Lee, who wore a yellow two piece crepe with matching accessories, her mother, Mrs. S. E. Lee Jr. in a blue silk and Mrs. J. R. Durr, attired in blue and white silk. They each wore yellow corsages.

Miss Jane Routh Lee, sister of the honoree presided at the guest book.

Flowers in shades of yellow were used in profusion throughout the spacious reception rooms of the Mays home. Of special note were the daisies and candles used on the tea table. The crystal punch service was placed at one end of the table. Misses Gay Walter, Margaret Mays and Kathlyn Charpentier alternated at serving.

The hostesses gift was a set of club aluminum ware in saddle tone.

A large number of friends called between the appointed hours of 3 and 5 p.m.

MARKETS AT A GLANCE

NEW YORK (AP) —

Stocks — Lower; profit taking.

Bonds — Mixed; governments slightly higher.

Cotton — Generally lower; dull trading.

CHICAGO:

Wheat — Mostly about steady; May weak.

Corn — Mixed; light trade.

Oats — Steady to easier; scattered selling.

Soybeans — Steady to weak; old crop months lower.

Hogs — Steady to 25 cents lower; top $16.25.

Slaughter steers — Steady to 50 cents higher; top $22.-25.

GRAIN

CHICAGO (AP) — The grain futures market generated a little firmness in spots Friday but mostly demand was slack and prices drifted into weakness on the Board of Trade.

May wheat and old crop soybeans were under heaviest pressure at the finish and losses ranged out to nearly three cents.

Old crop soybeans, oats and soybean meal traded at their lowest levels of the season. Oats rallied slightly from the lows of the day but soybeans and soybean meal still were under pressure at the close.

At the close, wheat was 1¾ cents a bushel lower to ⅛ higher, May $2.00⅛ - ½; soybeans ⅛-2¾ lower, May $2.52¼ - ⅜; corn ⅛ lower to ½ higher, May $1.25-24⅞; oats unchanged to ½ lower, May 60⅝-½ cents; rye ⅛-1¼ lower, May $1.27⅞-¾.

COTTON

NEW YORK COTTON

NEW YORK (AP)—Cotton futures closed unchanged to 25 cents a bale higher Friday.

The market started easy on light liquidation. Commission house buying increased slightly toward the close to give the market a firmer tone.

Basically, traders awaited a decision by the Department of Agriculture as to who is to get the new cotton subsidy payment beginning Aug. 1 to lower the domestic mill cost of cotton to about the world level. Currently this subsidy is being paid directly to mills. A committee has completed hearings and is expected to make its recommendations to the Secretary of Agriculture, probably within the next week.

Three Are Held For Sentencing

Three persons were remanded to the Ouachita Parish Jail for sentencing Friday after they pleaded guilty in Fourth District Court before presiding Judge Jesse S. Heard. Two were jointly charged with felony theft and the third with forgery.

They were Donaldson James Williams, Negro, 30, 123 Powell Ave., Monroe; Jeffie Belin, Negro, Compton, Calif., formerly of Monroe; and Ray Davis, Negro, also of Monroe.

Williams pleaded guilty to two counts of forgery; while Davis and Belin entered guilty pleas to the felony theft.

Friday's session ended the trial session of district court. Another session week is set for June.

Markets

Winded Mart Takes Pause After Climb

NEW YORK (UPI) — The stock market, apparently winded after a climb into a record ground over the past five sessions, slipped back somewhat Friday more from lack of buying than selling pressure. Trading was moderate.

Auto issues made another bid to lead the market into still higher ground early in the session but ran out of gas and the market generally started sagging by mid-day.

Dow-Jones industrial average dipped 1.60 to 828.57. Rails slipped 0.22 to 199.35. Standard & Poor's 500 stock index was off 0.15 to 81.00.

Texas Gulf Sulphur was the most actively traded issue, spurting 4⅝ on a turnover of 296,100 shares. Investor appetite in the stock continued to be whetted by the uncertainty over how big a Canadian mining strike the company has made.

Chrysler, which shared the active trading play, climbed ½ on volume of 284,900 shares. RCA was third most active, down 1⅛ on 110,400 shares. Curtis Publishing also placed among the most active stocks and gained ¾.

General Motors made an early bid to rise near its historic peak but ended the day off ¼ on heavy volume. Many brokers feel that should GM top its all-time high it would ignite the rest of the market for a spirited run-up. Ford was active and lost 1 while American Motors was unchanged.

Copperweld Steel stole the limelight from its bigger competitors, rising 1⅞. U.S. Steel and Republic each gave up ⅛. Youngstown was off ⅞ and Bethelehem was off ½.

The chemical list was lower with the exception of Union Carbide which added ½. Du Pont dipped 2½, Allied and Eastman Kodak each surrendered ¼.

In the oils, Jersey Standard was off ½ but Amerada rose ¼ and Continental ¾ and Barber Oil 1.

Heavy Docket Handled In City Court

A heavy docket with 33 traffic cases was handled Friday in Monroe City Court with Judge W. M. Harper presiding.

Forfeiting bonds for speeding were Joseph Chisely, 20, of P. O. Box 14, Archibald, $10; Billie Kasperek, 30, 200 Belmont Circle, $8; Richard Campbell, 19, 2117 Oliver Rd., $23; Herbert S. Jackson, 27, 905 Wilson St., $17; Phillip James, 19, 314 Madison Hall, Northeast State College, $13; Wilmer McClandish, 36, Rural Route, Monroe, $10; R. E. Malone Jr., 37, 117 Carlton Ave., $10; and R. E. Powell Jr., 17, 2310 Paragoud Blvd., $17.

Reckless driving bond forfeitures were Herbert Wilson, 31, 808 Ouachita Ave., $30; J. C. Jackson, 18, 107 Ross St., $30; R. V. Murphy, 20, 2006 Jackson St., $30. Charges of reckless driving against Mary Faircloth, 19, 3103 Ft. Miro St., were nolle prossed. Reckless driving charges against D. F. Smith of Rt. 3, Charles A. Stratford of 3310 Gordon Ave., and Ora W. Wood, 600 Victoria St., were discharged.

Ida Mae Jackson, 33, of 216 Pryor St., was fined $425 for driving while intoxicated. Charges of reckless driving against her were nolle prossed.

Charges of simple battery against O. R. Trichell, of 700 Wilson St., and Roy Tharpe and Tommy Tharpe, both of Rt. 2, Monroe were nolle prossed.

A charge of theft by check against T. L. Fuller, 26, of Sterlington was nolle prossed upon payment of check and court cost.

Other cases handled were for minor traffic violations.

Monroe Police Book Negro On Forgery Count

A 20-year-old Negro, Walter Ray Williams of 1112 Powell Ave., was booked Friday by Monroe Police on charges of forgery. Williams is charged with forging two checks of a Monroe woman valued at $45 and $50.

John Abram Taylor, 31, of Box 538, Grambling, was booked on charges of driving while intoxicated and reckless driving after his arrest at N. 4th Street and Louisville Avenue at 1:35 p.m. Friday.

The Ouachita Parish Sheriff's Department early Friday booked a 52-year-old Negro woman, Mamie Pipins, 108 Carroll Auditorium Alley, on charges of forgery. Also apprehended and jointly booked in the case was a 15-year-old Negro youth.

Sidney Wilson, 57, of 415 S. 12th St., Monroe, was booked by Monroe Police at 9:30 p.m. Friday on charges of driving while intoxicated and reckless driving after his arrest at S. 8th and Oak Streets.

West Monroe police booked Lee B. Matthews, 42, of 346 Red Bud Lane, West Monroe, on charges of driving while intoxicated and reckless driving after his arrest on Jonesboro Road at 9:10 p.m. Friday. West Monroe officials also reported two earlier arrests on DWI charges. Otho M. Richardson, 34, of 2905 Ridgemire Ave., Amarillo, Tex., was booked for the offense at 1:10 a.m. Friday after his arrest on Natchitoches Street and John E. Patton, 20, of Rt. 1, Box 34, Crossett, Ark., was booked at 2:25 a.m. after his arrest at S. 5th Street and Linderman Avenue.

Meat Pie Spat Ends In Death At New Orleans

NEW ORLEANS (AP) — A neighborhood argument over a meat pie resulted in the death of a man and the arrest of two other persons, booked with murder.

L. J. Phillips, 30, was fatally stabbed. Police said Pauline Morris, 36, noticed that the meat pie she had cooked for her dinner was missing from her downstairs apartment.

Ten Persons Injured In Area Crash

OAK GROVE (Special) — Ten persons including seven youths on their way to a church rally were injured in a head-on collision which heavily damaged both cars Friday night east of here on State Highway 2.

The accident happened about 7 p.m. when a car driven by Keith Pettis, 20, of Bastrop swerved to avoid hitting a car in front that had slowed down, according to investigating state police. The veer caused the car driven by Pettis to smash an oncoming car driven by 16-year-old Donald L. Potter of Oak Grove, state police reported.

With Pettis were six other youths, all from the Midway Pentecostal Church in Bastrop who were going to Lake Providence to attend a Pentecostal Youth Rally. They were one of several groups traveling in cars going to the rally.

In the car with Potter were his mother, Mrs. Eula L. Potter, 47, and his 12-year-old brother, Dennis Ray. All three were taken to the Oak Grove Clinic where Mrs. Potter was believed to have suffered fractures in both legs and multiple contusions. The boys' injuries were not immediately known.

The youths, taken first to Oak Grove Clinic for treatment and later to Bastrop General Hospital, were identified as: Maydell Wright, 15, and Marvil Wright, 17, daughters of Mr. and Mrs. D. C. Wright; Betty Anderson, 15, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Carraway; Milton Townsend, 19, son of Mr. and Mrs. Elra Townsend; Gloria Dampier, 14, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Cordell Dampier; Mary Kennedy, 14, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. D. J. Kennedy, and Pettis who lives with his sister, Mrs. Glen Bonnette.

First reports at the Bastrop hospital indicated that Maydell and Marvil Wright were the most seriously injured. Maydell had a broken leg and cuts and abrasions. Marvil was believed also to have a broken leg and bruises.

The other youths suffered cuts, bruises and abrasions. All were still in the emergency room late Friday night.

No charges have been filed.

Foreman Named Baptist Speaker

Dr. A. D. Foreman Jr., father of A. D. Foreman III of Monroe, will give the closing major address at the annual meeting of the Southern Baptist Religious Education Association, May 18-19, in Alantic City, N. J.

Dr. Foreman, pastor from Memphis, Tenn., will speak on "The Education of a Church in the Will of God."

The meeting is one of several which will preceed the annual meeting of the Southern Baptist Convention.

Dr. Taylor Cites Needs Of Colleges In State

Dr. F. Jay Taylor, president of Louisiana Tech, said Friday that Louisiana colleges are facing a crisis brought on by the need for facilities and faculty.

Speaking to the Monroe Optimist Club, Dr. Taylor said he favored the state's policy of state - supported colleges to students with high school educations.

But he added, "The colleges must have the resources to take care of the students."

"We must have the library and the faculty to meet this challenge," the Tech president explained. "As wonderful as all our beautiful buildings are, they mean little without a well-stocked library and a competent faculty."

Regarding the crisis that colleges face, he said, "Our budgets have prevented us from acquiring badly needed books and the exodus of Ph. D's to other states has reached alarming proportions. Unless these trends are reversed, especially in the light of increasing enrollment, we can only expect a declining quality of education in all of our Louisiana colleges."

The 40-year-old educator — youngest college president in Louisiana — said that contrary to the belief of many equality of education for all and educational of the superior student are not mutually exclusive.

"It seems to me that both of these objects can be pursued simultaneously," Dr. Taylor stated. "Yet there is an alarming tendency in our society to have excellence give way to normality, to have the average become the desirable, and to glorify mediocrity while ridiculing distinction."

Explaining that he wanted each Tech student to obtain a "true education," Dr. Taylor emphasized that education does not end with the diploma.

"The machinery of our colleges must not be mistaken for the results they seek," he said. "To have passed a particular combination of courses amounting to 127 college credits is a significant achievement, yet; but it constitutes no guarantee that the person who holds the diploma is educated or that his education is finished."

He stressed that students must "realize that one of the mortal conflicts of this century is the fight between communism and democracy." He said he wanted his students to "know how the sanctity of freedom and private property can be preserved, and that state worship, state control, and state ownership must be guarded against."

"In this nation we used to believe firmly in a personal God," Dr. Taylor said. "But, in many places, He isn't so popular any more. In this country, we used to believe that the penniless immigrant and the poor boy from the farm could work themselves up to the top in the companies that employed them. That idea merely produces a cynical smile among the vast majority today."

Citing examples where education failed responsible men who turned dishonest, Dr. Taylor said the educated, informed man "knows that truth is better than evil, that confidence should supersede fear, that love is superior to hate, that gentleness is better than cruelty, that forebearance is better than arrogance and that truth has more virtue than ignorance."
